

City of Lauderdale PROCLAMATION

- Whereas,* the Holocaust was the state-sponsored, systematic persecution and annihilation of European Jewry by Nazi Germany and its collaborators between 1933 and 1945. Jews were the primary victims – six million were murdered; Gypsies, the handicapped and Poles were also targeted for destruction or decimation for racial, ethnic or national reasons—millions more, including homosexuals, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Soviet prisoners of war and political dissidents, also suffered grievous oppression and death under Nazi tyranny; and
- Whereas,* the history of the Holocaust offers an opportunity to reflect on the moral responsibilities of individuals, societies, and governments; and
- Whereas,* we the people of the City of Lauderdale should always remember the terrible events of the Holocaust and should remain vigilant against hatred, persecution, and tyranny; and
- Whereas,* we the people of the City of Lauderdale should actively rededicate ourselves to the principles of individual freedom in a just society; and
- Whereas,* the “Days of Remembrance” have been set aside for the people of the City of Lauderdale to remember the victims of the Holocaust as well as to reflect on the need for respect of all peoples; and
- Whereas,* pursuant to an Act of Congress (Public Law 96-388, October 7, 1980) the United States Holocaust Memorial Council designates the Days of Remembrance of the victims of the Holocaust to be Sunday, April 19 through Sunday, April 26, 2009,” including the Day of Remembrance, “Yom Hashoah”, April 21.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Richard J. Kaplan, Mayor of the City of Lauderdale, Florida, do hereby proclaim the week of Sunday, April 19 through Sunday, April 26, 2009 as:

“Days of Remembrance” “Never Again: What you do Matters”

in memory of the victims, and in honor of the survivors, as well as the rescuers and liberators, and further proclaim that we, as citizens of the City of Lauderdale should strive to overcome intolerance and indifference, through learning and remembrance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I HAVE HEREUNTO SET MY HAND AND CAUSED THE OFFICIAL SEAL OF THE CITY OF LAUDERHILL, FLORIDA, TO BE AFFIXED THIS 12th DAY OF MARCH, 2009.

Richard J. Kaplan, Mayor
