WHEREAS, the Holocaust was the state-sponsored, systematic persecution and annihilation of European Jewry by Nazi Germany and its collaborators between 1933 and 1945. Jews were the primary victims – six million were murdered; and

WHEREAS, gypsies, the disabled, and Polish citizenry were also targeted for destruction or decimation for racial, ethnic or national reasons. Millions more, including homosexuals, Jehovah's Witnesses, Soviet prisoners of war and political dissidents also suffered grievous oppression and death under Nazi tyranny; and

WHEREAS, the history of the Holocaust offers an opportunity to reflect on the moral responsibilities of individuals, societies, and governments; and

WHEREAS, we the people of Salt Lake City should always remember the terrible events of the Holocaust and remain vigilant against hatred, persecution and tyranny, and;

WHEREAS, we the people of Salt Lake City should actively rededicate ourselves to the principles of individual freedom in a just society; and

WHEREAS, the Days of Remembrance have been set aside for the people of Salt Lake City to remember the victims of the Holocaust as well as to reflect on the need for respect of all peoples; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to an Act of Congress (Public Law 96-388, October 7, 1980), the United States Holocaust Memorial Council designates the Days of Remembrance of the victims of the Holocaust to be Sunday, April 19th through Sunday, April 26th, 2009, including the Day of Remembrance know as Yom Hashoah, April 21st;

NOW, THEREFORE, I Ralph Becker, Mayor of Salt Lake City, Utah, do hereby proclaim the week of Sunday, April 19th through Sunday, April 26th as in memory of the victims of the Holocaust, and in honor of the survivors, as well as the rescuers and liberators, and further proclaim that we, as citizens of Salt Lake City, should strive to overcome intolerance and indifference through learning and remembrance.

Dated this 20th day of April, 2009
