General Instructions

Do not use this form for a year before 2006. Instead, use the November 2002 version of the form for years after 2001 but before 2006.

Purpose of Form

Paid preparers of federal income tax returns or claims for refund involving the earned income credit (EIC) must meet the due diligence requirements in determining if the taxpayer is eligible for, and the amount of, the EIC. Failure to do so could result in a $100 penalty for each failure. See Internal Revenue Code section 6695(g) and Part IV of this form.

Specific Instructions

Line 2

If the taxpayer was married at the end of the year, he or she must usually file a joint return to take the EIC. However, if the taxpayer and his or her spouse did not live together for the last 6 months of the year, the taxpayer may be eligible to use the head of household filing status. See Pub. 501 for details.

Line 3

For purposes of taking the EIC, an SSN issued by the Social Security Administration (SSA) is not valid if "Not Valid for Employment" is printed on the social security card and the number was issued solely to apply for or receive a federally funded benefit. Any other SSN issued by the SSA is valid for EIC purposes. You may find it useful to look at the social security card.

Line 8

Enter only the child's first name unless both children have the same first name. In that case, enter other identifying information to distinguish between the two children.

Line 9

An adopted child is treated as the taxpayer's child by blood. An adopted child is a legally adopted child of the taxpayer, or an individual who is lawfully placed with the taxpayer for legal adoption by the taxpayer.

A descendant usually refers to a grandchild or great-grandchild of the taxpayer, or to a child, grandchild, or great-grandchild of the taxpayer's brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister.

A foster child is a child placed with the taxpayer by an authorized placement agency or by judgment, decree, or other order of any court of competent jurisdiction.

Line 10

If the child is married and the child's other parent claimed him or her as a dependent under the special rules for children of divorced or separated parents, check "Yes."

Line 11

Even if the child did not live with the taxpayer for the required time, check "Yes" if the exception for a child who was born or died during the year applies. Also, temporary absences may count as time lived at home. Military personnel on extended active duty outside the United States are considered to be living in the United States during that duty period. For details, see Pub. 596.

Line 13c

If you checked "Yes" on line 13a, the child meets the conditions to be a qualifying child of both the taxpayer and at least one other person. However, only one person can take the EIC and other benefits listed below based on that child. The other person(s) cannot take the EIC for people who do not have a qualifying child, but may be able to take the EIC and the other benefits based on a different qualifying child.

The taxpayer and the other person(s) can decide which of them (if otherwise eligible) will take the following tax benefits based on the qualifying child.

- The dependency exemption.
- The child tax credit.
- Head of household filing status.
- The credit for child and dependent care expenses.
- The exclusion for dependent care benefits.
- The EIC.

The other person(s) cannot take any of the six tax benefits listed above unless he or she has a different qualifying child. But there is an exception to this rule if the special rule for divorced or separated parents applies, because the noncustodial parent can claim an exemption and the child tax credit for the child. See Rule 9 in Pub. 596.

Tiebreaker rules. If the taxpayer and the other person(s) cannot agree and more than one person claims the EIC or the other tax benefits listed on this page using the same child, the IRS will apply the following rules.

- If only one of the persons is the child's parent, the child will be treated as the qualifying child of the parent.
- If both persons are the child's parents, the child will be treated as the qualifying child of the parent with whom the child lived for the longer period of time during the year entered on line 1. If the child lived with each parent for the same amount of time, the child will be treated as the qualifying child of the parent who had the higher adjusted gross income (AGI) for the year entered on line 1.
- If none of the persons are the child's parent, the child will be treated as the qualifying child of the taxpayer who had the highest AGI for the year entered on line 1.

Line 14

See the line 3 instructions for the definition of a valid SSN. If the child does not have a valid SSN because he or she was born and died during the year entered on line 1, check "Yes."

Line 23

You must keep the records described on line 23 for 3 years. The 3-year period begins the June 30th following the date you give the return or claim to the taxpayer to sign. These records may be kept on paper or electronically in the manner described in Revenue Procedure 97-22 (or later update). Revenue Procedure 97-22 is on page 9 of Internal Revenue Bulletin 1997-13, which is available at www.irs.gov/pub/irs-irbs/irb97-13.pdf.
