3	DOS/PRM	AF	African Union	IOM		X	X				Unit in response to the needs and requests of African countries. The African Union (AU) has sought to lay a foundation for building sustainable migration capacity within the Regional Economic Communities (RECs). The Migration Policy Framework adopted in July 2006 states that comprehensive and balanced approaches to migration must be formulated. The AU also emphasized the need for greater capacity building in the area of migration management including trafficking in persons. This project responds to this request through a technical workshop that will address the key elements towards effectively combating trafficking in persons in the continent and will culminate in the AU-led launch of the "Stop Trafficking" campaign in collaboration with all the Communities. The outcome of the workshop led by the AU will be a set of concrete recommendations that will be incorporated into future plans at the level of the RECs. This project also complements the ongoing efforts the Migration Dialogue for West Africa (MIDWA), the Migration Dialogue for Southern	$79,931	1	MRA - Supplemental	2008

FY 2008 funds will be used for the following activities: 1) Continue to provide comprehensive TIP training to the regional bureaus of the MVD to complement assistance from other organizations involved in anti-trafficking activities in Russia, and to ensure that training is disseminated as widely as possible. A significant portion of the ABA program is designed to assist the police in identifying and screening human trafficking victims and encouraging close cooperation with NGOs; and (2) Expand and update the ABA's practical manual on investigation of TIP-related cases. ABA will assemble an international, multi-disciplinary working group (police, Embassy, USAID, IOM, and ABA) to edit and revise the present human trafficking manual for use by the police in Russia, expanding the sections dealing with identifying and screening prevention for students of law departments and lawyers of law companies. Those trainings will allow invitation of 20 volunteers willing to continue working against trafficking. Training seminars for the volunteers will provide basic trafficking prevention information and another seminar will teach about grant writing, communication skills, project management, and personal goals development. Trained volunteers will run another session of trainings for students and lawyers with the supervision of project experts. The volunteers will have 2 meetings on best practices exchange together with project experts. In addition, the project will organize 2 round table discussions with representatives of passport-visa services, law enforcement bodies, city administration, educational institutions, law companies, NGO and mass media to discuss issues of trafficking prevention in the region. One of the important and complex tasks involved in the effective application of the Prevention and Sanction of Trafficking in Persons Law in Mexico is the adequate protection of and assistance to victims of this criminal offence. As such, this project proposes the discussion and development -within the framework of the Inter-ministerial Committee foreseen in the Law- of a service model for TIP victims, which outlines an identification and referral mechanism based on the responsibilities of each of the institutions that participate in the Committee. The model will include a comprehensive critical path for assistance, starting with how to identify victims of trafficking followed by medical and psychological interventions towards an adequate reintegration process. 195	DOS/PRM	USA	United States -- global returns and transportation of family members.	IOM						X	TIP Victims in the US: This project supports TVPA provisions for eligible family members abroad to be reunited with TIP victims in the US, and also provides return & reintegration for victims in the U.S. who want to return to their country of origin. The US Trafficking Victims Protection Act (TVPA) of 2000, and its Reauthorizations of 2003 and 2005 include provisions for family reunification for T-Visa beneficiaries, yet many victims and NGOs do not have the necessary resources for this process. The program provides a safe and coordinated mechanism to bring eligible family members of trafficking victims from abroad to the United States. It is also available to victims of trafficking in the U.S. who elect not to apply for the T-Visa and who are in need of assistance to return to their country of origin. Assistance is provided on a case-by-case basis, and includes financial and logistical support for travel, pre-departure assistance and documentation, transportation and coordinated reception with NGO partners, as well as escorts for unaccompanied children.
