

The highest wages were paid to computer and mathematical workers on the East and West Coasts and in Colorado.

Figure 17 Annual mean wage for computer and mathematical occupations, by State, May 2006

- Combined, workers in computer and mathematical occupations were the third-highest paid among all occupation groups nationwide.
- Wages for computer and mathematical occupations were highest in Massachusetts, Virginia, New Jersey, California, and Maryland.

