RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

REVISED RELEASE RELATING TO AMENDMENTS TO REGULATION S-X

At the request of the Office of the Federal Register, the Commission has made certain revisions to the Regulation S-X release dated September 17, 1992. Accordingly, the copy issued by the Commission on September 17, 1992 should not be relied upon. The copy dated September 24, 1992 is the correct release. ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

SANCTIONS IMPOSED AGAINST PATRICK RAYMOND COMERFORD

The Commission announced the imposition of sanctions against Patrick Raymond Comerford (Comerford) in the proceedings previously authorized pursuant to Sections 15(b), 19(h) and 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Comerford, a registered representative formerly associated with Graystone Nash, Inc. (Graystone), consented without admitting or denying the Commission's findings to an Order containing findings that he willfully violated the antifraud provisions. The Order found that in the offer and sale of several "penny stocks," the respondent made materially false and misleading statements and omissions regarding profits to be made by investing through Graystone and the future market prices of the penny stocks he recommended. The order also found that in the offer and sale of several "penny stocks," the respondent made materially false and misleading statements and omissions regarding his access to inside information regarding these stocks, the obligation of purchasers to pay for stock purchased and the risks associated with the investments he recommended.

The Order bars Comerford from association for a period of four years and orders him to permanently cease and desist from committing or causing any violation or future violation of the antifraud provisions. (Rel. 34-31209)

VICTOR GOLDMAN BARRED

The Commission announced that on September 22 it entered an Order pursuant to Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 barring Victor Goldman of Lawrence, New York from association with any broker, dealer, municipal securities dealer, investment adviser or investment company, with a right to reapply after five years. The Commission simultaneously accepted Goldman's Offer of Settlement in which,

A hearing will be held to determine if the allegations of the order are true and whether a cease and desist order should be entered. (Rel. IA-1338)

LYNN ELGERT, INC. REVOKED AND LYNN ELGERT BARRED

The Commission instituted public administrative proceedings against Lynn Elgert, Inc. (LEI) and its president, Lynn S. Elgert (Elgert), pursuant to Sections 203(e), 203(f) and 203(k) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (Advisers Act). Simultaneously, the Commission accepted LEI's and Elgert's Offers of Settlement in which each consents to the entry of an Order without admitting or denying the findings contained in the Order. The Order makes findings that LEI willfully violated, and Elgert willfully aided and abetted violations of the antifraud, books and records, reporting and other provisions of the Advisers Act. Both LEI and Elgert are ordered to cease and desist from committing or causing any future violation of Sections 204, 204A and 206 of the Advisers Act and Rules 204-1(b) and (c), 204-2(a), 204-2(e) and 206(4)-1(a) promulgated thereunder. In addition, the Order revokes LEI's registration with the Commission as an investment adviser and permanently bars Elgert from association with any broker, dealer, investment company, investment adviser or municipal securities dealer. (Rel. IA-1339)

ASHLAND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, INC. BARRED

The Commission announced that it had instituted public administrative proceedings pursuant to Section 203(e) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (Advisers Act) naming Ashland Capital Management, Inc. (Ashland) as respondent, in light of the permanent injunction entered against Ashland by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York restraining and enjoining it from violating Section 206(1), (2), and (4) of the Advisers Act, Rule 206(4)-2 thereunder, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. In the complaint in that action, the Commission alleged that Ashland, acting as an unregistered investment adviser, misappropriated $113,941 from an advisory client and sent her quarterly account statements fraudulently stating that her funds were invested in securities.

Simultaneously with the institution of these proceedings, the Commission accepted Ashland's offer of settlement in which it consented to the entry of orders barring Ashland from serving or acting as a broker, dealer, investment company, investment adviser or municipal securities dealer. (Rel. IA-1340)

ALISANDRO APONTE BARRED

The Commission announced that it had instituted public administrative proceedings pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (Advisers Act) naming Alisandro Aponte (Aponte) as respondent, in light of the permanent injunction entered against Aponte by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York restraining and enjoining him from violating Section 206(1), (2), and (4) of the Advisers Act, Rule 206(4)-2 thereunder, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. In the complaint in that action, the Commission alleged that Ashland Capital Management, acting as an unregistered investment adviser through Aponte, misappropriated $113,941 from an advisory client and sent her quarterly account statements fraudulently stating that her funds were invested in securities.

NASD ACTION AGAINST JAMES OBERWEIS SET ASIDE

The Commission has set aside disciplinary action taken by the NASD against James D. Oberweis (Oberweis) of Aurora Illinois. Oberweis was formerly chief executive officer of Oberweis Securities, Inc. (OSI), a former NASD member firm.

The NASD found Oberweis responsible for net capital violations by OSI from November 14 through November 17, 1988. However, the Commission noted that in July 1988 Ronald Alghini, who had extensive managerial experience in the securities business, purchased a controlling interest in OSI and thereafter took complete control of the firm's operations. The Commission further noted that, prior to the net capital violations at issue, Oberweis resigned as the firm's chief executive officer and financial principal.

The Commission stated: "At the time of the net capital infractions, Oberweis was no longer in de facto or even de jure control of the firm ... Thus, it is difficult to discern why he should be held accountable for violations that occurred under the firm's new management." (Rel. 34-31213)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST UTAH TRANSFER AGENT

The Commission instituted public administrative proceedings against over the Counter Stock Transfer, Inc. (OTC) and its president Carolyn Simpson (Simpson) pursuant to Sections 17A(c)(3)(A) and 21B of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) and cease and desist proceedings under Section 21C of the Exchange Act.

The Division alleges that OTC failed to register with the Commission while performing the functions of a transfer agent from November 1990 To July 5, 1992 for companies whose securities were registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act of 1934, in violation of 17A(c)(1) of the Exchange Act. Simpson is alleged to have caused OTC's failure to register.

A hearing will be scheduled to determine whether the allegations in the Order are true and what, if any, remedial sanctions are appropriate. (Rel. 34-31214)

NASD ACTION AGAINST RICHARD STRAUSS SET ASIDE

The Commission has set aside NASD disciplinary action against Richard G. Strauss of Morrison, Colorado. The NASD found that Strauss, formerly a trader for Hamilton, Bohner, & Van Vleck, Inc., had violated recordkeeping requirements by failing to prepare order tickets for certain transactions and preparing tickets for other transactions that had not been executed. The NASD had censured Strauss, fined him $25,000, and suspended him from association with any member in any capacity for six months.

While agreeing with the NASD that the type of activity alleged should be dealt with seriously, the Commission was unable to find that Strauss engaged in any such misconduct. The only witness with personal knowledge of the events in question to testify was Strauss and the Commission found that the "sketchy documentary record" did not disprove Strauss' contentions. The only remaining evidence against Strauss constituted unreliable hearsay. The Commission noted that, although an NASD panel is not a formalistic tribunal akin to a court, the evidence was insufficient to support the NASD's judgment. (Rel. 34-31222)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

DISTRIBUTION PLANS APPROVED IN BOESKY, SIEGEL AND KIDDER LITIGATION

The Commission announced that on September 25 Judge Richard Owen, U.S. District Judge for the Southern District of New York, approved three proposed coordinated plans of distribution pursuant to which more than $56 million previously disgorged by defendants Ivan F. Boesky, Martin A. Siegel and Kidder Peabody & Co., Inc. in the Commission enforcement actions against them would be distributed to investors and other securities litigation claimants.

Once the necessary settlements are entered in the private actions, the monies that will eventually be distributed to class plaintiffs will be transferred to the jurisdiction of Judge Milton Pollack, the presiding judge in the Boesky Securities Litigation (MDL DKT No. 732, MDL 21-45-MP). The escrow agent and receiver in the Commission's actions will monitor the distribution process to ensure that monies are being distributed to persons eligible under the Commission's plans to receive money and that the disgorgement funds are not being used to pay the fees or expenses of class counsel. [SEC v. IVAN F. BOESKY, 86 Civ. 8767, RO, SDNY; SEC v. MARTIN A. SIEGEL, 87 Civ. 0963, RO, SDNY; and SEC v. KIDDER PEABODY & CO., INC., 87 Civ. 3869, RO, SDNY] (LR-13382)

Publication of the proposal is expected in the Federal Register during the week of September 28. (Rel. 34-31241)

ACCELERATED APPROVAL OF PROPOSED RULE CHANGE

The Commission approved on an accelerated basis a proposed rule change (SR-OCC-92-5) filed by The Options Clearing Corporation to change in the expiration date of certain foreign currency options traded on the Philadelphia Stock Exchange to conform with PHLX's file (SR-PHLX-92-25). Publication of the proposal is expected in the Federal Register during the week of September 28. (Rel. 34-31242; International Series Rel. 462)
