(Prepared by the SEC Office of Public Information)

(Issue No. 73-4)

FOR RELEASE January 5, 1973

NEW RULES AND RULE PROPOSALS

SEC ANNOUNCES REVISIONS TO FORM S-16. The SEC today announced revisions to Form S-16 for the registration of securities under the Securities Act of 1933. Form S-16 is a special form which may be used by issuers who file reports with the Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and who meet certain tests, including a record of earnings and continuity of management.

The amendments add two new items to Form S-16 to require disclosure describing the distribution spread and the plan of distribution in instances in which the form is utilized for underwritten secondary distributions. Another amendment revises the requirements of existing Item 2(b), which deals with disclosure of the identity and amount of participation of each broker or dealer by whom the securities are to be offered.

The effective date of the amendments is March 31, 1973, except that any issuer which meets the requirements for the use of the form may, at its option, use such amended form for a registration statement filed prior to that date. (Rel. 33-5346)

COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

REVISED GUIDELINES FOR POOLING ACCOUNTING. The SEC today issued an Accounting Series Release revising the guidelines set forth in Accounting Series Release No. 130 covering the test of risk sharing that would be applied in determining whether a business combination could be accounted for as a pooling of interest.

Under the revised guidelines, if pooling accounting is to be used, affiliates of both parties to a combination would have to hold shares acquired in the combination until such time as combined results of operations have been published covering a period of at least 30 days after the combination. (Rel. 33-5348)

DIVISION RENAMED. The SEC today announced the change in the name of the "Division of Investment Company Regulation" to the "Division of Investment Management Regulation." The new name, effective January 5, is intended to reflect more accurately the functions and responsibilities of the Division. These include administration of the Commission's program for regulation of investment advisers under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as well as the program for regulation of investment companies under the Investment Company Act of 1940. Both functions were consolidated in this one Division in recognition of the need for a coordinated and uniform approach to all forms of professional money management.

The Division of Investment Management Regulation has been delegated responsibility for assessing the adequacy of existing regulatory patterns and monitoring the development of such diverse products and services as registered investment companies, individualized investment management arrangements, oil and gas drilling funds and other tax-sheltered vehicles, all of which often compete for the same investment dollars.

American Plan Investment Corporation is a real estate syndication firm headquartered in San Francisco, Calif., and James Zissis is its president. The Commission's complaint alleged, among other things, that the defendants violated the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 in the sale of limited partnership interests in real estate syndications while claiming reliance on the "intrastate" or "private" offering exemptions. The defendants consented to the order without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint. (LR-5685)
