RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

REVOCATION OF PRIVACY ACT SYSTEMS OF RECORDS

The Commission has revoked two descriptions of systems of records under the Privacy Act, SEC-35 (Investigations and Actions Index System) and SEC-101 (Matters Under Inquiry) that are within the scope of the consolidated description of enforcement records, SEC-102 (Enforcement Files). (Rel. PA-14)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

ARTHUR ABBA GOLDBERG PERMANENTLY ENJOINED

The Commission instituted public administrative proceedings against Arthur Abba Goldberg pursuant to Sections 15(b)(6), 15B(c)(4) and 15C(c)(1)(C) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and simultaneously accepted an Offer of Settlement submitted by Goldberg. In the Offer of Settlement, Goldberg consented to the entry of an Order finding that he had been permanently enjoined by the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York from, among other things, future violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws in SEC v. Matthews & Wright Group, Inc. et al., and that he had been criminally convicted of mail fraud pursuant to a plea of guilty by the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California. The Order barred Goldberg from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser or municipal securities dealer.

The Commission's complaint in the above injunctive action alleged, among other things, that while associated with Matthews & Wright, Inc., a broker-dealer registered with the Commission, Goldberg had committed violations of the federal securities laws in connection with closings of more than $1.2 billion of municipal bonds in 26 offerings in December 1985 and August 1986 prior to certain federal tax law changes (Rel. 34-28593)

WILLIAM MATHIS BARRED

The Commission announced that it has accepted an Offer of Settlement submitted by William H. Mathis in a previously instituted administrative proceeding (In the Matter of William H. Mathis, Administrative Proceeding File No. 3-7153, instituted March 1, 1989). On August 3, 1990, an Administrative Law Judge had issued an Initial Decision in this matter in which she ordered that Mathis be barred from association with any broker or dealer with the right to reapply for permission to become so associated in a nonsupervisory position after two years. Based upon Mathis's Offer of Settlement, the Commission entered an Order barring Mathis from association with any broker, dealer, investment company, investment adviser or municipal securities dealer, with the right to reapply after five years from the date of the Commission's Order. (Rel. 34-28594).

PROCEEDINGS AGAINST ROBERT RIDENOUR

The Commission instituted public administrative proceedings against Robert L. Ridenour (Ridenour). The Order Instituting Public Proceedings alleges that from November 1979 to April 1984, Ridenour conducted a trading scheme whereby he positioned undisclosed nominee accounts (Accounts) between the transactions he effected for his customers and the true market for U.S. government, corporate and municipal debt securities. The order further alleges that Ridenour violated the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws by making material misstatements and omissions concerning the capacity in which Ridenour conducted the transactions, his beneficial interest in the Accounts, the higher price paid by Ridenour customers purchasing securities through Ridenour, the lower price received by Ridenour customers selling securities through Ridenour and that the profits that accrued in the Accounts were paid to Ridenour. The Order also alleges that Ridenour violated the broker-dealer registration provisions when he engaged in the business of effecting transactions without being registered with the Commission. The Order further alleges that Ridenour was enjoined by the U.S. District Court in Iowa for this conduct.

A hearing will be scheduled to take evidence on the staff's allegations and to afford the respondent an opportunity to present any defenses thereto. (Rel. 34-28596)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

ORDER OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION AGAINST JACK JOHNSTON

On October 25, Judge David Sam of the U.S. District Court for Utah permanently enjoined Jack M. Johnson (Johnston), a businessman in Houston, Texas, from violating the antifraud and registration provisions of the federal securities laws, following a hearing on cross-motions for summary judgment.

The Court found, among other things, that Johnston initiated a scheme to revive defunct corporations with intent to misappropriate the corporate shell and use the revived entity for distributing unregistered stock. [SEC v. PROS International, Inc., et al., USDC UT, Central Division, Civil Action No. 87-C-0751 S] (LR-12698)

MARK RODDY ENJOINED

The Los Angeles Regional Office announced that on November 5 the Honorable Harry L. Hupp of the Central District of California granted the Commission's Application for Entry of Final Judgment by default against Mark M. Roddy (Roddy).

The complaint alleged that the financial statements included in registration statements filed in 1986 by ZZZZ Best Co., Inc. (Z Best), and in its March 17, 1987, quarterly report, contained numerous misrepresentations of material fact, including that Z Best had received millions of dollars in revenues from its nonexistent insurance restoration business. Roddy posed as the principal of a purported property management service, which was in fact a sham entity. On November 23, 1986, Roddy, a Z Best attorney and a Z Best auditor, toured a Sacramento building upon which Z Best had purportedly completed $7 million of insurance restoration work. In fact, no such work had been performed.

The Final Judgment will permanently enjoin Roddy from violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act and Sections 10(b), 13(a) and 13(b)(2) of the Exchange Act and Rules 10b-5, 12b-20, 13a-13, 13b2-1 and 13b2-2 thereunder. Roddy was criminally convicted in connection with his Z Best activities and sentenced to five years imprisonment. He is currently incarcerated in federal prison in Texas. [SEC v. Barry J. Minkow, et al., Civil Action No. 90-4361 HLH Sx, C.D. Cal.] (LR-12699)

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

JASON SMITH AND OTHERS INDICTED

The U.S. Attorney for the Central District of California and the Denver Regional Office announced the unsealing of a twenty-one count indictment on October 4, 1990 against Jason W. Smith of Jason Smith Petroleum Corporation, Robert G. Long and Ray Martin Hoskins, all residents of the Los Angeles, California area. The indictment alleges mail fraud and the sale of unregistered securities, which carry a maximum fine of $250,000 and five years imprisonment for each count.

The indictment alleges that the defendants raised $2 million from 180 investors nationwide, from 1985 to 1987, by falsely representing that: (1) the corporation was producing 240 barrels of oil per day from a well that had not been completed; and (2) the corporation was drilling in prime oil country in Wyoming, when in fact, the area was surrounded by dry wells. The indictment also alleged no registration statement had been filed as required.

The Denver Regional Office had earlier filed an injunctive action in which Smith and the corporation consented to be enjoined from future violations of the antifraud and registration provisions. The defendants subsequently filed bankruptcy because they could not afford to do an accounting of funds. [U.S. v. Jason Wallace Smith, Robert Gene Long and Ray Martin Hoskins, USDC, Central District of California, Criminal Action File No. 90-CR-752] (LR-12697)

WILLIAM HOGLUND SENTENCED TO TWO YEARS IN PRISON

The New York Regional Office and the U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of New York announced that on October 3, pursuant to a guilty plea, William S. Hogleund was sentenced to two years incarceration, two years supervised release, and restitution, as he is able, by a Judge for the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

Hogleund pled guilty, by information, to one count of wire fraud. The information charged that Hogleund induced investors to tender funds to him for investment purposes and that Hogleund misappropriated investor funds. The criminal charges stem from the same conduct alleged to be violative in the Commission's complaint against Hogleund.

On May 18, 1990, in a related action brought by the District Attorney's Office for New York County, Hogleund plead guilty and was sentenced to one year of incarceration and five years probation to run concurrently with the federal sentence by a Judge for the New York County Criminal Court (see SEC v. William S. Hogleund, 89 Civ 222, S.D.N.Y.). [U.S. v. William S. Hogleund, 90-CR-160, E.D.N.Y.] (LR-12700)
