ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST AND SIMULTANEOUSLY SETTLED BY PRESIDENT OF TALLAHASSEE BROKER-DEALER/ADVISER

The Commission announced that it instituted and simultaneously settled public administrative proceedings against Robin R. McEachin, president and owner of Meridian Asset Management, Inc. (Meridian) of Tallahassee, Florida.

The order instituting the proceedings (Order) finds that Respondent Meridian, since September, 1991, was a broker-dealer registered with the Commission and since January, 1992, was an investment adviser registered with the State of Florida. Respondent McEachin, from September, 1991 through the present, was a principal and registered representative associated with Meridian. The Order further finds that on July 26, 2000, without admitting or denying any of the allegations in the Commission's Complaint, except as to jurisdiction, Respondents Meridian and McEachin (Respondents) consented to the entry of a final judgment of permanent injunction.

On August 1, 2000, the Court permanently enjoined Respondents from future violations of the antifraud provisions of the Exchange Act and the Advisers Act. The injunction followed a civil action initiated by a complaint filed by the Commission on July 26, 2000, naming Respondents, among others, as defendants (the Complaint), alleging that from at least 1998 through May 2000, McEachin misappropriated at least $1 million, in large part pension funds, which his customers entrusted to him for investment on their behalf. The Complaint further alleged that to conceal his theft, McEachin created fictitious Meridian account statements reflecting the purported contents and market value of his customers' portfolios. The Commission also alleged in the complaint that Meridian failed to maintain the minimum net capital required by law, and that it failed, or was in danger of failing, to meet its obligations to its customers.

The Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) joined the Commission's action against Meridian by filing, concurrently with the Commission's Complaint, an application (Application) pursuant to the Securities Investor Protection Act (SIPA) for a court decree finding that the customers of Meridian were in need of the protections provided by the SIPA. In its Application, SIPC also sought a court decree appointing SIPC as trustee for the liquidation of the business of Meridian. Meridian consented to SIPC's Application. On August 1, 2000, the Court granted SIPC's Application, and appointed SIPC trustee for the liquidation of the business of Meridian.

In the Order, the Commission bars McEachin from association with any broker, dealer, or investment adviser. (Rel. 34-43722; IA-1914; File No. 3-10387)
