ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

DEFAULT JUDGMENT ENTERED AGAINST DEFENDANTS IN FRAUD CONCERNING NICHICAPITAL, LTD.

The Commission announced that on June 30 the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York entered a Final Judgment by Default against Nichi Capital, Ltd. (Nichi), Wise Choice Discount Brokerage, Inc. (Wise Choice), Olawande A. Agunloye (Agunloye), and Brian Walfish (Walfish). The order permanently restrains and enjoins the defendants from violating certain antifraud and registration provisions of the securities laws. In particular, each defendant was enjoined from violating Sections 5(a) and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rules 10b-5 and 10b-9 thereunder. The order also requires Nichi, Wise Choice, Agunloye, and Walfish, jointly and severally, to disgorge $1,004,165.05 and imposes a civil penalty of $10,000 on each of the defendants.

The order arises from a complaint filed March 27, 1998. The complaint alleged, among other things, that beginning in approximately October 1997, the defendants fraudulently offered and sold shares of Nichi securities to investors both in a private placement and in an initial public offering (IPO). The Nichi securities were not registered with the Commission, nor were they exempt from registration under the federal securities laws. The defendants induced investments in Nichi securities by a series of misrepresentations. These misrepresentations included false claims that an IPO of Nichi stock was about to take place, that the shares purchased would greatly increase in value once Nichi's IPO was completed, and that the investors' money would be placed in an escrow account until the IPO took place. On March 31, 1998, the Court issued a temporary restraining order against the defendants and ordered an asset freeze against Nichi, Wise Choice, and Agunloye. On May 12, 1998, the Court continued the asset freeze, preliminarily enjoined the defendants from violating the antifraud provisions and registration provisions of the federal securities laws, and ordered each of the defendants to provide an accounting. CIVIL ACTION AGAINST JAMES CLEVELAND

The Commission announced that on June 28 the Hon. Melinda Harmon, United States District Judge for the Southern District of Texas, directed entry of a Final Summary Judgment against James Russell Cleveland (Cleveland), individually, and doing business as Central Texas Securities (CTS), an unincorporated association. The final judgment permanently enjoined Cleveland violating Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, and Sections 10(b) and 15(a)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and awarded the Commission a disgorgement judgment of $2,510,000, and prejudgment interest of $623,578.67, and imposed a civil money penalty of $100,000.

Judge Harmon found that Cleveland, through CTS, took in at least $4.8 million from CTS customers for the stated purpose of purchasing municipal securities, but never purchased such securities for his victims. Cleveland fraudulently diverted these funds for his personal uses, and to make "Ponzi" payments to other victims; the disgorgement amount represents the total amount of funds Cleveland spent for personal uses.

Cleveland previously pleaded guilty to federal and state criminal charges arising from the activities set out in the Commission's complaint, and is currently serving a 46 month sentence in a federal correctional facility. Cleveland has also been sentenced to 15 years incarceration in the Texas criminal case; this sentence is to be served concurrently with his federal incarceration, with the balance of his time served in state correctional facilities. See, L.R. 16002, L.R. 15112. [SEC v. James Russell Cleveland, individually and d/b/a Central Texas Securities, Civil Action No. H-96-1629, USDC, SD/TX, Houston] (LR-16205)

SANJAY SAXENA SENTENCED TO PRISON AND ORDERED TO PAY RESTITUTION AND FINES

The Commission today announced that the Honorable William G. Young sentenced Sanjay Saxena (Saxena), of Cary, North Carolina, a former registered investment adviser and newsletter publisher, to thirty-three months in federal prison and three years of supervised release and ordered him to pay $13,616 in restitution, $100,000 fines and $1,600 in special assessments. Saxena's sentencing follows his guilty plea to 32 counts of securities and mail fraud, including sales of unregistered securities and prohibited transactions by an investment adviser.

On February 25, 1995, in an action brought by the Commission arising from the same conduct, Saxena consented to the entry of a final judgment of permanent injunction restraining him from further violations of the securities laws and an order to disgorge $703,000 plus interest (representing all monies owed to investors). On February 28, 1995, the Commission entered an order barring Saxena from the securities industry.

On September 18, 1998, the Commission filed a second action against Saxena and his wife Mumtaz Saxena. The complaint, which is pending in United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, alleges that the Saxenas violated the antifraud and registration provisions of the federal securities laws in the formation and operation of an investment adviser and two investment companies and that Saxena violated the Commission's February 28, 1995 bar order.
