ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

THE CRONOS GROUP CONSENTS TO A CEASE AND DESIST ORDER FOR VIOLATIONS OF ANTIFRAUD, REPORTING, BOOKS AND RECORDS, AND INTERNAL CONTROL PROVISIONS

On November 15, the Commission issued a settled Order Instituting Public Administrative Proceedings Pursuant to Section 8A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Making Findings, and Imposing a Cease and Desist Order (Order) against The Cronos Group, a Luxembourg holding company that is one of the ten largest lessors of marine cargo containers. Cronos consented to the Order without admitting or denying the Commission's findings. The Commission found that Cronos violated antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act) and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act), and reporting, books and records and internal control provisions of the Exchange Act, and certain Exchange Act Rules.

The Commission found that Cronos failed to disclose and to properly account for numerous related party transactions with Stefan M. Palatin, its former chairman and chief executive officer, resulting in material misstatements and omissions in Cronos' registration statement, in public statements to shareholders, and in annual and other periodic reports filed with the Commission. The company made the false statements and omissions between 1995 and 1998. The Commission found that Cronos failed to disclose, among other facts, that Palatin intercepted payments between Cronos and one of its major customers (which Palatin also controlled) which gave rise to a contingent liability for Cronos; Cronos paid Palatin millions of dollars in the year before its initial public offering and recorded the payments as a loan to a third party; and Palatin, through another entity that he controlled, sold shares in the IPO. The Commission also found that, following the IPO, Cronos failed to disclose that it paid additional funds to Palatin immediately after the offering and that it made misstatements concerning the nature and purpose of other payments made to Palatin as well as the extent to which an obligation Palatin owed to Cronos was secured by collateral. The Commission found that Palatin controlled the company's disclosures and was the beneficiary of the transactions which the company misrepresented in its filings and public statements. The Commission further found that Cronos systematically fired or demoted employees and directors who challenged or questioned the transactions or disclosure at issue.

The Commission found that these multiple misstatements and omissions violated the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act and Exchange Act, reporting provisions of the Exchange Act and Exchange Act Rules. The Commission also found that Cronos failed to make and keep books, records, and accounts, which, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflected its transactions and dispositions of assets and further failed to devise and maintain a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurances that transactions were recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

The Commission ordered Cronos to cease and desist from committing or causing any violations and any future violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act, Section 10(b), 13(a), 13(b)(2)(A), and 13(b)(2)(B) of the Exchange Act, and Exchange Act Rules 10b-5, 12b-20, 13a-1, 13a-16, and 13b2-1.

The Commission acknowledges the valuable assistance provided in this matter by the governmental authorities of Austria, Switzerland and the United Kingdom. (Rel. 33-7771; 34-42139; AAE Rel. 1208; File No. 3-10096)
