Application Procedures and Criteria for Approval of Providers of a Personal Financial Management Instructional Course by United States Trustees

AGENCY: Executive Office for United States Trustees ("EOUST"), Justice.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: This notice of proposed rulemaking ("rule") sets forth proposed procedures and criteria United States Trustees shall use when determining whether applicants seeking to become and remain an approved provider of a personal financial management instructional course satisfy all prerequisites of the United States Code, as implemented under this rule. Under the current law, individual debtors must participate in an instructional course concerning personal financial management before receiving a discharge of debts. The current law enumerates mandatory prerequisites and minimum standards applicants seeking to become approved providers of a personal financial management instructional course must meet. Under this rule, United States Trustees will approve applicants for inclusion on publicly available provider lists in one or more federal judicial districts if an applicant establishes it meets all the requirements of the United States Code, as implemented under this rule. After obtaining such an approval, a provider shall be authorized to provide an instructional course in a federal judicial district during the time the provider remains approved.

DATES: Submit comments on or before January 13, 2009.

ADDRESSES: Comments on the rule may be submitted via <http://www.regulations.gov>, by telefax to (202) 305-8536, or by postal mail to Executive Office for United States Trustees ("EOUST"), 20 Massachusetts Ave., NW., 8th Floor, Washington, DC 20530. Discussion of Rule

This rule implements those sections of Public Law 109-8, 119 Stat. 23, 37, 38 (April 20, 2005) codified at 11 U.S.C. 111. Effective October 17, 2005, individual debtors under chapters 7, 13, and in some instances chapter 11, must receive from an approved provider an instructional course concerning personal financial management before they may receive a discharge of their debts. 11 U.S.C. 111, 727(a)(11), 1141(d)(3)(C), 1328(g)(1).

Section 111(b) of title 11, United States Code, governs the approval by United States Trustees of providers of a personal financial management instructional course for inclusion under 11 U.S.C. 111(a)(1) on publicly available provider lists in one or more United States district courts. Section 111 of title 11 provides that, in applicable jurisdictions, a United States Trustee may approve an application to become a provider of an instructional course only after the United States Trustee has thoroughly reviewed the applicant's (a) qualifications, and (b) instructional course. 11 U.S.C. 111(b)(1). A United States Trustee has statutory authority to require an applicant to provide information with respect to such review. 11 U.S.C. 111(b)(1).

After completing that thorough review, a United States Trustee may approve a provider of an instructional course only if the provider establishes that it fully satisfies all requisite standards. 11 U.S.C. 111(b). Among other things, an applicant must establish it will (a) provide trained personnel with adequate experience in providing effective instruction and services, (b) provide learning materials and teaching methodologies designed to assist debtors in understanding personal financial management, (c) if applicable, provide adequate facilities for providing an instructional course, (d) prepare and retain reasonable records to permit evaluation of the effectiveness of an instructional course, and (e) if a fee is charged, charge a reasonable fee, and provide services without regard to ability to pay the fee. 11 U.S.C. 111(d)(1).

This proposed rule will implement those statutory requirements. By accomplishing that, the rule will help debtors obtain effective instruction from competent providers. It also will provide an appropriate mechanism by which applicants can apply for approval under section 111 of title 11 to become providers of a personal financial management instructional course, and will enable such applicants to attempt to meet their burden of establishing they should be approved by United States Trustees under 11 U.S.C. 111.

This rule, once final, will supersede the provisions that address providers of a personal financial management instructional course in EOUST's Interim Final Rule published on July 5, 2006 (71 FR 38076) entitled Application Procedures and Criteria for Approval of Nonprofit Budget and Credit Counseling Agencies and Approval of Providers of a Personal Financial Management

Instructional Course by United States Trustees ("Interim Final Rule"). The instructional course provisions are currently codified at 28 CFR 58.25, 58.26, and 58.27. Due to the necessity of quickly establishing a regulation to govern the application process for providers of an instructional course following the passage of BAPCPA, EOUST promulgated the Interim Final Rule rather than a notice of proposed rulemaking. Based upon experience administering the Interim Final Rule, and upon consideration of comments received regarding the Interim Final Rule, EOUST promulgates this rule as a notice of proposed rulemaking rather than a final rule in an effort to maximize public input. EOUST will respond to the comments to the Interim Final Rule and this rule when it publishes the final rule. EOUST has already published a notice of proposed rulemaking that addressed credit counseling agencies with a RIN number of 1105-AB17. This rule parallels that credit counseling rule in many aspects. For instance, the application procedures are similar, as well as the procedures for denying or removing a provider from the approved list. Other similarities include the fee amount presumed to be reasonable, the debtor identification requirements, the requirement that providers use the United States Trustee's Certificate Generating System, the prohibition against limiting a debtor's ability to seek redress from the provider for any malfeasance, and many of the mandatory disclosures before providing services.

In an effort to make information more accessible and understandable, several changes to the Interim Final Rule are proposed in this rule, along with other changes to enhance consumer protections. Some of the more significant changes include the following: (1) Adding identification procedures for debtors when accessing Internet or telephone instructional courses; (2) establishing a limit for instructional course fees to be presumed reasonable; (3) providing guidance on providers' responsibilities to individuals with limited English proficiency; and (4) requiring appropriate disclosures be made before providing services to debtors, such as a provider's fee policy and the prohibition from receiving referral fees.

Executive Order 12866

This rule has been drafted and reviewed in accordance with Executive Order 12866, "Regulatory Planning and Review" section 1(b), The Principles of Regulation. The Department has determined that this rule is a “significant regulatory action” and, accordingly, this rule has been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget (“OMB”).

The Department has also assessed both the costs and benefits of this rule as required by section 1(b)(6) and has made a reasoned determination that the benefits of this regulation justify its costs. The costs considered in this regulation include the required costs for the submission of an application. Costs considered also include the cost of establishing and maintaining the approved list in each federal judicial district. In an effort to minimize the burden on applicants, the application keeps the number of items on the application to a minimum.

The costs to an applicant will be minimal. The anticipated costs are the photocopying and mailing of the requested records, along with the salaries of the employees who complete the applications. Based upon the available information, experience with the instructional course industry, and informal communications with providers, it is anticipated that this cost should equal approximately $500 per application for providers. This cost is not new; it is the same cost that providers incurred when applying under the Interim Final Rule. Public comments regarding the cost to applicants in completing the application are requested.

Although providers may charge a fee for providing the financial management instructional course, providers must provide the instructional course without regard to a client’s ability to pay the fee in accordance with 11 U.S.C. 111(d)(1)(E). Based upon the available information, current practice of many providers, experience with the instructional course industry, and informal communications with providers, $50 is presumed to be a reasonable fee for an instructional course. Public comments as to the reasonableness of $50 for an instructional course are requested. This rule does not prevent providers from charging more than $50; it requires providers to notify EOUST of any additional charge prior to implementing the additional fee and to justify the additional cost.

The amount presumed to be reasonable for instructional course fees will be reviewed periodically, but not less than every four years, and the amount presumed to be reasonable will be published by notice in the Federal Register and identified on EOUST’s Web site. In addition, all providers must waive the fee if the debtor demonstrates a lack of ability to pay the fee, which shall be presumed if the debtor’s household current income is less than 150% of the income of the official poverty line as identified by the United States Department of Health and Human Services applicable to a household of the same size.

The number of applicants that will ultimately apply is unknown; EOUST currently has approved approximately 300 providers. The annual hour burden on providers is estimated to be 10 hours. This estimate is based on consultations with individuals in the instructional course industry, and experience with providers who completed the initial applications. Public comments regarding the annual hour burden on providers of an instructional course in completing the application are requested.

The EOUST consulted with the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) and with the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) in drafting this rule and the EOUST does not believe the rule has an adverse effect upon either agency.

The benefits of this rule include the development of standards that increase consumer protections, such as a limit on the presumption of reasonable fees, and the requirement that providers give adequate disclosures concerning providers’ policies. These disclosures include notifying clients that they may qualify for reduced or free services in order to further the BAPCPA’s requirement that services be provided without regard to ability to pay the fee. This rule also provides for greater supervision by the United States Trustee to ensure providers deliver effective instruction to debtors concerning personal financial management. Additionally, this rule assists in reducing fraud by requiring providers to identify debtors before providing an instructional course and corresponding certificate of completion. Another benefit of this rule is clarifying providers’ responsibility to use their best efforts in assisting individuals with limited English proficiency by providing services in the client’s language or referring them to providers who can provide services in the client’s language. These benefits justify the rule’s costs in complying with Congress’ mandate that a list of approved providers be established. Public Law No. 109–8, section 106(e)(1).

Executive Order 13132

This rule will not have a substantial direct effect on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, in accordance with Executive Order 13132, it is determined that this rule does not have sufficient federalism implications to warrant the preparation of a Federalism Assessment.

Paperwork Reduction Act

The information collection requirements contained in this rule have been approved by OMB in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. 3501 to 3520, and assigned OMB control number 1105–0085 for form EOUST–DE1, the “Application for Approval as a Provider of a Personal Financial Management Instructional Course.” The Department notes that full notice and comment opportunities were provided to the general public through the Paperwork Reduction Act process, and that the application and associated requirements were modified to take into account the concerns of those who commented in this process.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

In accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 605(b)), the Director has reviewed this rule and by approving it certifies that it will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. This certification is based upon the fact that applicants should incur minimal costs in completing the application as discussed above in the Executive Order 12866 certification.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995

This rule does not require the preparation of an assessment statement in accordance with the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995, 2 U.S.C. 1531. This rule does not include a Federal mandate that may result in the annual expenditure by State, local, and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of more than the annual threshold established by the Act ($100 million). Therefore, no actions were deemed necessary under the provisions of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995.

Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996

This rule is not a major rule as defined by section 804 of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, 5 U.S.C. 801 et seq. This rule will not result in an annual effect on the economy of $100 million or more; a major increase in costs or prices; or significant adverse effects on competition, employment, investment, productivity, and innovation; or on the ability of United States-based companies to compete with foreign-based companies in domestic and export markets.

Privacy Act Statement

Section 111 of title 11, United States Code, authorizes the collection of this information. The primary use of this information is by the United States Trustee to approve providers of a personal financial management instructional course. The United States Trustee will not share this information with any other entity unless authorized under the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a et seq. EOUST has published a System of Records Notice that delineates the routine use exceptions authorizing disclosure of information. 71 FR 59818, 59827 (Oct. 11, 2006), JUSTICE/UST-005, Credit Counseling and Debtor Education Files and Associated Records. Public Law 104-134 (April 26, 1996) requires that any person doing business with the Federal government furnish a Social Security Number or Tax Identification Number. This is an amendment to section 7701 of title 31, United States Code. Furnishing the Social Security Number, as well as other data, is voluntary, but failure to do so may delay or prevent action on the application.

§ 58.34 Additional minimum requirements to become and remain approved providers relating to fees.

(a) If a fee for an instructional course is charged by a provider, such fee must be reasonable:

(1) A fee of $50 or less for an instructional course is presumed to be reasonable and a provider need not obtain prior approval of the United States Trustee to charge such a fee;

(2) A fee exceeding $50 for an instructional course is not presumed to be reasonable and a provider must obtain prior approval from the United States Trustee to charge such a fee. The provider bears the burden of establishing that its proposed fee is reasonable. At a minimum, the provider must demonstrate that its cost for delivering the instructional course justifies the fee; and

(3) The United States Trustee shall review the amount of the fee set forth in paragraphs (a)(1) and (2) of this section periodically, but not less than every four years, to determine the reasonableness of the fee. Fee amounts and any revisions thereto shall be determined by current costs, using a method of analysis consistent with widely accepted accounting principles and practices, and calculated in accordance with the provisions of federal law as applicable. Fee amounts and any revisions thereto shall be published in the Federal Register.

(b) A provider shall waive the fee whenever a debtor demonstrates a lack of ability to pay the fee. A debtor shall be deemed to have demonstrated a lack of ability to pay the fee if the debtor's household current income is less than 150% of the income of the official poverty line (as defined by the Office of Management and Budget, and revised annually in accordance with section 673(2) of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981) as identified in the Poverty Guidelines updated periodically in the Federal Register by the United States Department of Health and Human Services applicable to a family or household of the size involved in the fee decision.

(c) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section, a provider may also waive fees based upon other considerations, including, but not limited to:

- (1) The debtor's net worth;
- (2) The percentage of the debtor's income from government assistance programs;
- (3) Whether the debtor is receiving pro bono legal services in connection with a bankruptcy case; or
- (4) If the combined current monthly income, as defined in 11 U.S.C. 101(10A), of the debtor and his or her spouse, when multiplied times 12, is equal to or less than the amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. 707(b)(7).

(d) A provider shall not link a debtor's purchase of an instructional course to the purchase of any other service offered by the provider.

(e) A provider who is also a chapter 13 standing trustee may only provide the instructional course to debtors in cases in which the trustee is appointed to serve and may not charge any fee to those debtors for the instructional course. A standing chapter 13 trustee may not require debtors in cases administered by the trustee to obtain the instructional course from the trustee. Employees and affiliates of the standing trustee are also bound by the restrictions in this subsection.

§ 58.35 Additional minimum requirements to become and remain approved providers relating to certificates.

(a) An approved provider shall deliver a certificate only to the debtor who took and completed the instructional course, except that an approved provider shall instead deliver a certificate to the attorney of a debtor who took and completed an instructional course if the debtor specifically requests that in writing.

(b) An approved provider shall deliver a certificate to a debtor no later than three business days after the debtor completed an instructional course and after completion of a debtor course evaluation form that evaluates the effectiveness of the instructional course; however, the approved provider shall not withhold the issuance of a certificate because of a debtor's failure to submit an evaluation form, though the provider should make reasonable effort to ensure that debtors complete and submit course evaluation forms.

(c) An approved provider shall not withhold the issuance of a certificate because of a debtor's failure to obtain a passing grade on a quiz, examination, or test. Although a test may be incorporated into the curriculum to evaluate the effectiveness of the course and to ensure that the course has been completed, the approved provider cannot deny a certificate to a debtor if the debtor has completed the course as designed.

(d) An approved provider shall issue certificates only in the form approved by the United States Trustee, and shall generate the form using the Certificate Generating System maintained by the United States Trustee.

(e) An approved provider shall have sufficient computer capabilities to issue certificates from the United States Trustee's Certificate Generating System.

(f) An approved provider shall not charge a separate fee for the issuance of a certificate or replacement certificate, unless:

- (1) The approved provider has disclosed such fee in writing before an instructional course is provided and before any payment is made by the debtor;
- (2) The approved provider obtains the written consent of the debtor before the debtor commences receiving an instructional course; and
- (3) Such fee is reasonable and otherwise complies with the waiver requirements of 28 CFR 58.34.

(g) An approved provider shall issue a certificate to each debtor who completes an instructional course. Spouses receiving an instructional course jointly shall each receive a certificate.

(h) An approved provider shall issue a replacement certificate to a debtor who requests one.

(i) An approved provider shall not file certificates with the court.

(j) Only an authorized officer, supervisor or employee of an approved provider shall issue a certificate, and an approved provider shall not transfer or delegate authority to issue certificates to any other entity.

(k) An approved provider shall implement internal controls sufficient to prevent unauthorized issuance of certificates.

(l) An approved provider shall ensure the signature affixed to a certificate is that of an officer, supervisor or employee authorized to issue the certificate, in accordance with paragraph (j) of this section, which signature shall be either:

- (1) An original signature; or
- (2) An electronic signature (in the form /s/ name of instructor); however, whenever a certificate is prepared for filing electronically with the court, a certificate with the instructor's original signature shall also be provided to the debtor.

(m) An approved provider shall affix to the certificate the exact name under which the approved provider is incorporated or organized.

(n) An approved provider shall identify on the certificate:

- (1) The specific federal judicial district requested by the debtor;
- (2) Whether an instructional course was provided in person, by telephone or via the Internet;
- (3) The date on which an instructional course was completed by the debtor; and
- (4) The name of the instructor that provided the instructional course.

(o) An approved provider shall affix the debtor's full, accurate name to the certificate. If the instructional course is obtained by a debtor through a duly authorized representative, the certificate shall also set forth the name of the legal representative and legal capacity of that representative.

§ 58.36 Procedures for obtaining final agency action on United States Trustees' decisions to deny providers' applications and to remove approved providers from the approved list.

(a) The United States Trustee shall remove an approved provider from the approved list whenever an approved provider requests its removal in writing.

(b) The United States Trustee may issue a decision to remove an approved provider from the approved list, and thereby terminate the approved provider's authorization to provide an instructional course, at any time.

(c) The United States Trustee may issue a decision to deny a provider's application or remove a provider from the approved list whenever the United States Trustee determines that the provider has failed to comply with the standards or requirements specified in 11 U.S.C. 111, this rule, or the terms under which the United States Trustee designated it to act as an approved provider, including, but not limited to, finding any of the following:

(1) If any entity has suspended or revoked the provider's license to do business in any jurisdiction; or

(2) Any United States district court has removed the provider under 11 U.S.C. 111(e).

(d) The United States Trustee shall provide to the provider in writing a notice of any decision either to:

(1) Deny the provider's application; or

(2) Remove the provider from the approved list.

(e) The notice shall state the reason(s) for the decision and shall reference any documents or communications relied upon in reaching the denial or removal decision. To the extent authorized by law, the United States Trustee shall provide to the provider copies of any such documents that were not supplied to the United States Trustee by the provider. The notice shall be sent to the provider by overnight courier, for delivery the next business day.

(f) Except as provided in paragraph (h) of this section, the notice shall advise the provider that the denial or removal decision shall become final agency action, and unreviewable, unless the provider submits in writing a request for review by the Director no later than 20 calendar days from the date of the notice to the provider.

(g) Except as provided in paragraph (h) of this section, the decision to deny a provider's application or to remove a provider from the approved list shall take effect upon:

(1) The expiration of the provider's time to seek review from the Director, if the provider fails to timely seek review of a denial or removal decision; or

(2) The issuance by the Director of a final written decision, if the provider timely seeks such review.

(h) The United States Trustee may provide that a decision to remove a provider from the approved list is effective immediately and deny the provider the right to provide an instructional course whenever the United States Trustee finds any of the factors set forth in paragraphs (c)(1) or (2) of this section.

(i) A provider's request for review shall be in writing and shall fully describe why the provider disagrees with the denial or removal decision, and shall be accompanied by all documents and materials the provider wants the Director to consider in reviewing the denial or removal decision. The provider shall send the original and one copy of the request for review, including all accompanying documents and materials, to the Office of the Director by overnight courier, for delivery the next business day. In order to be timely, a request for review shall be received at the Office of the Director no later than 20 calendar days from the date of the notice to the provider.

(j) The United States Trustee shall have 30 calendar days from the date of the provider's request for review to submit to the Director a written response regarding the matters raised in the provider's request for review. The United States Trustee shall provide a copy of this response to the provider by overnight courier, for delivery the next business day.

(k) The Director may seek additional information from any party in the manner and to the extent the Director deems appropriate.

(l) In reviewing the decision to deny a provider's application or to remove a provider from the approved list, the Director shall determine:

(1) Whether the denial or removal decision is supported by the record; and

(2) Whether the denial or removal decision constitutes an appropriate exercise of discretion.

(m) Except as provided in paragraph (n) of this section, the Director shall issue a written final decision no later than 60 calendar days from the receipt of the provider's request for review, unless the provider agrees to a longer period of time or the Director extends the deadline. The Director's final decision on the provider's request for review shall constitute final agency action.

(n) Whenever the United States Trustee provides under paragraph (h) of this section that a decision to remove a provider from the approved list is effective immediately, the Director shall issue a written decision no later than 15 calendar days from the receipt of the provider's request for review, unless the provider agrees to a longer period of time, which decision shall:

(1) Be limited to deciding whether the determination that the removal decision should take effect immediately was supported by the record and an appropriate exercise of discretion;

(2) Constitute final agency action only on the issue of whether the removal decision should take effect immediately; and

(3) Not constitute final agency action on the ultimate issue of whether the provider should be removed from the approved list; after issuing the decision, the Director shall issue a written final decision in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (m) of this section.

(o) In reaching a decision under paragraphs (m) or (n) of this section, the Director may specify a person to act as a reviewing official. The reviewing official's duties shall be specified by the Director on a case-by-case basis, and may include reviewing the record, obtaining additional information from the participants, providing the Director with written recommendations, and such other duties as the Director shall prescribe in a particular case.

(p) A provider that files a request for review shall bear its own costs and expenses, including counsel fees.

(q) When a decision to remove a provider from the approved list takes effect, the provider shall:

(1) Immediately cease providing an instructional course to debtors and shall not agree to provide an instructional course to debtors;

(2) No later than 3 business days after the date of removal, issue all certificates to all debtors who completed an instructional course prior to the provider's removal from the approved list; and

(3) No later than 3 business days after the date of removal, return all fees to debtors who had paid for an instructional course, but had not completely received them.

(r) A provider must exhaust all administrative remedies before seeking redress in any court of competent jurisdiction.
