Surface acquired

Mineral estate acquired is lengthy or complicated. Details appear on acquired H.I. page. Abbreviation of Rstd which means Restricted may also appear on lands acquired under Bankhead Jones Act FFMC - Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation acquired land and later sold the same U.S. has acquired mineral estate only. Surface owned in fee

In the original patent the U.S. conveyed both surface and minerals Acquisition file number. The U.S. acquired only the surface

Shading denotes acquired interest of some kind. In this case only the surface was acquired

All minerals were acquired by U.S. Acquisition file number, surface also acquired The surface has been conveyed by the U.S. as provided by Sec. 32 of the Bankhead Jones Act. The U.S. reserved all the acquired minerals in the conveyance. Only two actions are shown on the plat, thus the reason for not showing the original patent. The land had to be patented before the U.S. could have acquired same.

The minerals were not reserved by U.S. in original patent or they could not have been acquired at a later date
