

7/7/04

Amendment for EPA New England Regional Applied Research Effort Program (RARE): Nitrogen Attenuation Research in the Connecticut River Watershed

The current due date for applications has been revised from 08/03/04 to 08/07/04. To be considered timely, initial proposals must be received by 4:00 pm local time on 08/07/04 from the U.S. Postal Service or other commercial delivery service.

Clarification is provided as follows:

Answers to relevant questions posed during question period:

- The solicitation is not a limited submission program whereby there is no restriction on the number of proposals that our university can submit.