

U.S. Citizenship
and Immigration Services

Press Release

November 25, 2003

USCIS AND AN AMERICAN ICON CELEBRATE THE CITIZENSHIP OF OVER ONE HUNDRED CHILDREN

Houston, TX – U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) is proud to welcome 110 of America’s newest and youngest citizens from around the world. At a special ceremony on November 25th in Houston, Texas, USCIS and national boxing legend George Foreman celebrated the children’s citizenship and encouraged them to seize all the advantages that America has to offer. The children ranged in ages from five to 18-years and represented 29-countries.

USCIS and national boxing legend George Foreman welcomes new U.S. Citizens in Houston, Texas.