Resource Advisory Council Group to Meet at BLM in Spokane August 18, 2006

Spokane, WA - The Eastern Washington Resource Advisory Council (RAC) is scheduled to meet Friday, August 18, from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., at the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) Spokane District Office, 1103 North Fancher, Spokane Valley, Washington, 99212. The entire meeting is open to the public, and public comment is invited at 8:30 a.m. Discussion will focus on the proposed Huckleberry Forest Stewardship Project - a vegetation treatment project for 190 acres of public land in Stevens County Washington, approximately 50 miles northwest of Spokane. After the meeting, the RAC will tour the Huckleberry Project area.

The Eastern Washington Resource Advisory Council is comprised of 15 members from a variety of backgrounds who are appointed by the Secretary of the Interior. The council reviews overall planning and proposed activities on public land in eastern Washington and provides advice to the BLM and U.S. Forest Service. For additional information about the Resource Advisory Council or the upcoming meeting, contact the Spokane BLM office, telephone (509) 536-1200.
