State: Illinois County: Adams

Post Office: Quincy Sept 21, 1881.

We hereby Certify, That we have carefully examined James B. Manlove, late a Sergeant Co. I, 84th Regt, Ill. Infantry in the service of the United States, who is an applicant for an invalid pension, by reason of alleged disability resulting from catarrh, living disease and piles.

Applicant's service.

Degree of disability.

In our opinion the said James B. Manlove is not incapacitated for obtaining his subsistence by manual labor from the cause above stated.

Origin.

Judging from his present condition, and from the evidence before us, it is our belief that the said disability did originate in the service aforesaid in the line of duty.

Probable duration.

The disability is

A more particular description of the applicant's condition is subjoined:

Particular description.

Height, 5-9; weight, 145; complexion, dark. Age, 49; pulse, 76; respiration, 18. General physical condition apparently good, although he alleges he is feeble. Alleges as showing catarrh that he has pain in upper frontal region, weak eyes, sometimes a yellow discharge from left nostril and a thumping in the head when stooping. No discharge now present. Alleges also piles which never come down, but which press constantly in rectum and bleed by three months. No sign.

where I continued to suffer from my disease - Catarrh in the head.
At times the pain was so severe I thought I should die. At the hospital above mentioned
I was treated. About Jan 25
1863 I was transferred to Hospital No One (1) where I also received treatment from the Surgeon (and) after recovering sufficiently done light service.
I remained at Hospital No 1.
until Aug 18th 1863 where I refused to do further hospital duty and was ordered to the front. My disease (Catarrh) fully developed while I was at Nashville above mentioned.
