Weekly Update Report Data (sheet 2 of 2)
No.	Short bulleted list of the major actions taken to date	Short bulleted list of the major planned actions
	Employment and Training Administration (ETA):
1	Members of the Georgia Regional Office participated in the WSB-TV/Georgia Department of Labor Career Expo on March 11, which was expected to draw 15,000. The Regional Administrator and key staff provided an update on ARRA in a workshop titled, "What does the ARRA do for me"?	Next week DOL will issue Notices of Obligation and Guidance for the Indian and Native American Youth Program component of the ARRA.
2	On March 12th, ETA conducted a briefing for the Senate Finance Committee on Unemployment Insurance provisions in the ARRA.	DOL will issue the Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC) guidance letter, extending the WOTC to cover unemployed veterans and disconnected youth.

3	On March 13th, ARRA leadership briefed the Senate Appropriations Committee staff on ARRA implementation.	Next week the Secretary will submit to OMB her plan for DOL usage of ARRA Administrative Funds.
4	ARRA leadership addressed state czars for ARRA implementation at the White House.	Next week DOL will issue Notices of Obligation to the states for WIA Adult, Dislocated Worker, Youth, Wagner-Peyser, and Senior Community Service Employment Program Planning funds, notifying them that the funds are available and ready to be obligated by the states.
	Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA):

5	EBSA is responding to approximately 1,200 COBRA inquiries on a daily basis, and gained 6500 new subscribers to www.dol.gov/cobra this week., who will receive automatic notices of new or updated announcements .	ARRA assigned significant new responsibilities to the Secretary of Labor in the benefit security arena. DOL must conduct extensive outreach, education, participant and compliance assistance programs as well as promulgate, under very tight time frames, model notices and regulations covering changes in COBRA eligibility and ARRA’s new premium assistance provisions. In addition, DOL must develop and implement a program that provides for expedited review and determination regarding an individual’s appeal of the denial of his or her request to be treated as an “assistance eligible individual” and thus entitled to a subsidy of 65 percent of the cost of the individual’s COBRA continuation health coverage for up to nine months. Notices are expected to be published next week.
6	EBSA added a Spanish language Fact Sheet, Poster & Flyers to its dedicated web site.
Employee Standards Administration (ESA):
7		Davis-Bacon: Provide information to the federal contracting agencies on the requirements for complying with the ARRA’s Davis-Bacon provision and train and retrain investigators on Davis-Bacon investigative techniques and enforcement procedures.
Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA):

8		Accelerate standards/guidance development.
9		Hire staff consistent with increased inspection workload.
10		Issue grants to states for enforcement activities and consultative services..
11		Complete targeting models for jobs, industries, and hazards relevant to ARRA.
	Office of the Inspector General (OIG):
12		The OIG will establish a web page dedicated to its audit and related oversight work of DOL's activities related to the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act .
