

Kathryn Bradley McGrath

Kathryn Bradley McGrath is a partner in the law firm of Mayer, Brown, Rowe & Maw LLP and is located in the firm's Washington, DC office. Ms. McGrath was Director of the SEC's Division of Investment Management from 1983 to 1990. She previously served as Associate Director of the SEC's Division of Market Regulation, Assistant and then Associate General Counsel to the SEC; Assistant Director of the Division of Corporation Finance; Special Counsel and then Executive Assistant to SEC Chairman Ray Garrett, Jr. and Roderick M. Hills; Legal Assistant to Commissioner Philip Loomis; and staff attorney in the Office of the General Counsel.

Ms. McGrath is a graduate of the Georgetown University Law Center and Mount Holyoke College. She is a member of the Advisory Board of the Mutual Fund Directors Forum and of the Executive Council, Securities Law Committee of the Federal Bar Association.