

Mark R. Fetting

Mark R. Fetting is responsible for Legg Mason's mutual fund and managed account businesses throughout the world, including oversight of Legg Mason Capital Management, Royce and Associates, and Clear Bridge Advisors. Since joining Legg Mason in June 2000, Mr. Fetting has played a leading role in the firm's strategic development and major acquisitions, most recently Citigroup Asset Management and Permal. Prior to these transactions, he headed Legg Mason's asset management segment. Mr. Fetting serves on the Executive Committee of the Board of Governors of the Investment Company Institute and as a director for the Legg Mason and Royce Funds.

Prior to joining Legg Mason, Mr. Fetting ran a major business for Prudential Financial Group serving as president, Retirement Services. As a senior officer at Prudential, he also played a leading role in the transformation of the firm's overall money management business. Prior to his career at Prudential, Mr. Fetting specialized in business management and strategy for money management firms. He served as a partner at Greenwich Associates and as a vice president at T. Rowe Price. His career began at Citibank, NA, as a commercial lending officer. Mr. Fetting holds a Bachelor of Science in Economics from the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, and a Master of Business Administration, with distinction, from Harvard University's Graduate School of Business Administration.

Mr. Fetting has been active in public service, where he successfully managed a congressional campaign in Western Maryland. He is a graduate of Leadership programs in Baltimore and Scranton, Pennsylvania. Committed to improving education, Mr. Fetting served as a founding director of The Fund for Educational Excellence and Project Raise. While living in Pennsylvania, he and his wife ran a summer camp providing outdoor experiences for Baltimore's children-at-risk. He currently serves on several community boards, including Baltimore School for the Arts, Mercy Hospital, and Gilman School.