

Paul G. Haaga, Jr.

Paul Haaga is Vice Chairman of Capital Research and Management Company, as well as Chairman of CRMC's Executive Committee. He is Chairman of Capital International Fund (Luxembourg SICAV marketed in Europe), Vice Chairman of the 12 fixed-income funds in the American Funds Group and of Capital Income Builder and Capital World Growth and Income Fund. He is also an officer and/or director of a number of other CRMC-managed mutual funds and a Director of The Capital Group Companies.

Prior to joining Capital in 1985, Paul was a partner in the law firm of Dechert Price & Rhoads (now known as Dechert) in Washington, D.C. From 1974 to 1977, he was a senior attorney for the Division of Investment Management of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Paul earned a bachelor's degree from Princeton University, an M.B.A. from the Wharton School and a J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

He is Vice Chairman and a member of the Executive Committee (Chairman from 2002–2004) of the Board of Governors of the Investment Company Institute (the national association of the U.S. mutual fund industry) and serves as President of the Board of Trustees of the Los Angeles County Museum of Natural History. He is a Trustee of the Salzburg Seminar in Salzburg, Austria and of the Huntington Library, Museum and Gardens in San Marino, California and Chairman of the Board of Overseers of the University of Pennsylvania Law School. Paul is President and Major Gifts Chair for Princeton's Class of 1970 and serves as Trustee of the Princeton Rugby Endowment.

Paul previously has taught a course on mutual fund regulation at Stanford University Law School and served as a Trustee of the Polytechnic School in Pasadena, California (Board President from 1996–1999) and of Georgetown Preparatory School in North Bethesda, Maryland. He also was Chairman of the Investment Companies Committee of NASD Regulation (the primary self-regulatory organization of the U.S. broker-dealer industry). He ran 21 marathons and coached 30 youth soccer and basketball teams back when his knees still worked.

Paul and Heather (an artist and community volunteer) have two children—Paul III 26 and Blythe 23.
