Blackwater National Wildlife Refuge to Give Guided Trail Walks

Beginning Sunday, August 5, 2007 Blackwater National Wildlife Refuge will provide a guided tour of the Marsh Edge Trail on Sundays during August and September at 1:00 pm. Learn about the natural and human processes affecting marsh plant and animal life on the eastern shore while enjoying a leisurely 1/3 mile trail walk with Billy Mahoney. Wear walking shoes and comfortable clothes with long sleeves, or bring insect repellent.

Meet at the Blackwater NWR Visitor Center. After the walk you can experience the second story observatory, wildlife exhibits, and tour the Wildlife Drive. For more information, call 410-228-2677.
