Honorable Robert Pitofsky,

I am in complete agreement with the FTC's new guidelines regarding made in USA. I agree that the 75% standard is more than a fair percentage to make that claim. By keeping the standard at an attainable level, I feel more manufacturers may be brought back to this country.

In my opinion, by keeping the current standard of 100% content not only would it damage manufacturing but also directly affect jobs, families and the economy. That, I fear is to heavy a price to pay.

Thank you.

Best Regards
 Joe Donohue
