

Comment #: 67

February 18 2004

Mr. barb sachau

N/A

New Jersey

United States

re 16 cfr part 310 telemarketing sales rule - rin 3084-0098 public comment is that this seems like a good, sound change. setting specific parameters is always preferable. answers to questions asked on page 8 are 1. is the term 30 days more precise - YES 2. hopefully it will 3. yes 4. the new term is specific and more precise and better for people who register and don't want to be bothered by selling by telephone, particularly those calls at dinner or at 11 pm. 5. the effective date should be immediately upon close of comment 6. i do not care if there is an effect on these intrusive businesses who make life a disaster with their calls bothering us. they can sell by mail, by internet, by advertising - they do not need to call on the telephone. 7. the companies who telemarket can simply spend their dollars on advertising, mail delivery of ads, etc. instead of telephone charges 8. i am not interested in finding ways for these selling companies to make more money and to bother anyone. people who need to buy something usually find a way to purchase what they need and do not need to be put upon with advertising of any kind at all. 9. not aware of any