

Comment #: 176

February 25 2004

Ms. Dorothy Jackson
Century 21 Oliver, Jackson
California
United States

Please do not implement this rule. It is hard enough downloading and updating the do-not-call list every three months. This would be very burdensome to businesses. In addition it would cloud the subject of when a citizen might have signed up and when they were called. The courts now have a fairly clear definition of time, but under the monthly rule this would be even harder to prove.