

Comment #: 45

February 26 2004

Ms. Marque Bressler

N/A

Ohio

United States

As a consumer, I don't believe monitoring the Do Not Call lists monthly is necessary. The public had ample knowledge and time to sign up. Now signups should start to slow down. Requiring companies to implement responsible procedures to monitor the list monthly is adding consider and undue burden on them.