Reducing Poverty Through Growth

Agriculture Consulting Services

The Millennium Challenge Corporation (MCC) is a new U.S. Government corporation whose mission is to provide assistance that will support economic growth and poverty reduction in carefully selected developing countries that demonstrate a commitment to just and democratic governance, economic freedom, and investments in their citizenry. For more information on the MCC, please visit www.mcc.gov.

Specialized consultancies may be required in a broad array of fields. Examples include vegetable and fruit production, tree crops, natural products, livestock production, range management, forestry, fisheries, value chain analysis, competitiveness, post-harvest processes, market analysis, input supply, watershed and natural resource management, on-farm water use and water user associations, mapping (e.g. GPS) technologies, public and private sector applied research and extension, association and cooperative development, farm budgets and related modeling, and agriculture and agricultural trade policies and regulations (e.g., SPS, CODEX).

Based on MCC's core principle of country ownership, consultants must have proven experience and skills in constructively collaborating with host country institutions. Travel to foreign countries will likely be required.

Candidates will be evaluated in accordance with the following factors:

- 1. Knowledge and Technical capability in agriculture or land-related fields.
- 2. Past Experience
- 3. Billing Rates

Applicants should be fluent in English, with command of other languages spoken by MCA-eligible countries highly desirable. Excellent written and oral communications skills are required. US citizenship is not required. Compensation will be based on qualifications and experience.

Please email your resume, with adequate information to determine your qualifications relative to the evaluation factors listed above, to recruitment@mcc.gov and include "A & RE" in the subject line.

This announcement is an open continuous position. Resumes will be evaluated every three months.

The MCC is an equal opportunity employer.
