

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENTS

1) Video Service

The National Labor Relations Board has a requirement for video conferencing service to provide bridge services to conduct video conferencing nationwide/wide area network for Ploycom SP and Polycom EX equipment with Elmo document cameras, along with 32” Sony televisions/monitors. Service is required for fifty-seven (57) video units at various locations throughout the United States. All responsible sources may submit a response. The requirement can be found on the Federal Business Opportunities website at www.fedbizopps.gov.

2) Video Maintenance

The National Labor Relations Board has a requirement for video maintenance on video conferencing equipment (Ploycom SP, and Polycom EX with Elmo document cameras), and 32” Sony television/monitors. There are a total of sixty (60) video units at various locations nationwide. All responsible sources may submit a response. The requirement can be found on the Federal Business Opportunities website at www.fedbizopps.gov.

3) Cable Service

The National Labor Relations Board intends to issue an award for cable television service to Comcast for basic and extended basic cable service to multiple offices located at the NLRB Headquarters office in Washington, DC area. All responsible sources may submit a response.

4) Translation Service

The National Labor Relations Board has a requirement for translation of two (2) publications from the English language to Korean language. All responsible sources may submit a response.

5) Child Care

The National Labor Relations Board requires the services of an organization to administer the NLRB Childcare tuition assistance program. All responsible sources may submit a response.