When Instruction Permit is Required: a student that has been canceled due to the Minor Driver License Law must have an instruction permit prior to any behind-the-wheel instruction.

When Instruction Permit Not Required: A student who is enrolled in the behind-the-wheel driver training course may operate a motor vehicle under the supervision of a certified instructor without a permit or license. However, the school district sponsoring the driver's training program must have a policy of insurance covering any damage which may be done by such student while operating the vehicle. The school district's insurance carrier must provide proof of coverage to ND Department of Transportation, Drivers License and Traffic Safety, 608 East Boulevard Avenue, Bismarck, ND, 58505-0700.
