Arizona Department of Education
Tom Horne, Superintendent of Public Instruction

State of Arizona

Department of Education

Tom Horne
Superintendent of Public Instruction

March 27th, 2007

Dear Education Professionals:

Since taking office in 2003, I have emphasized that the primary role of the Department of Education would be service. I have asked the Department to do everything possible to provide opportunities for growth for all educational professionals of our state. This catalog is a compilation of the efforts of the entire department to assist in creating better schools, better teachers, and better curriculum.

Research shows that in order for professional development to be successful, the effort needs to be continuous, job embedded, relevant, owned by the learner, and interactive. We also know that as educators, you are doing the most important, challenging work imaginable, and deserve strong support in order to be successful. This comprehensive catalog offers many opportunities across all topics to support your professional needs.

Thank you for your utilizing this catalog to provide educators with continuing professional development that promotes student achievement and professional satisfaction.

Sincerely,

Tom Horne

Arizona State Superintendent of Public Instruction
Tom Horne

Tom Horne assumed the position of Arizona State Superintendent of Public Instruction on January 6, 2003. Horne served in the Arizona legislature from 1996-2000, during which time he chaired the Academic Accountability Committee and served as vice-chair of the Education Committee. Horne brings 24 years of school board experience as a member of the board of the third largest district in the state. He held the position of president of the board for ten years. He has written extensively on education-related issues such as raising academic standards, character education, student discipline, school finance, and school safety.

Mr. Horne received his undergraduate degree magna cum laude from Harvard College and his J.D. with honors from the Harvard Law School.

“Contemporary professional learning is results-driven, standards-based, and job embedded.”

NSDC Standards for Performance Development

The School Effectiveness Division recognizes the need for highly qualified instructional leaders and classroom teachers to support student achievement. The Division adheres to the principles and standards for professional development set forth by the US Department of Education and the National Staff Development Council.

Principles of High Quality Professional Development

US Department of Education

- Focuses on teachers as central to student learning, yet includes all other members of the school community.
- Focuses on individual, collegial, and organizational improvement.
- Respects and nurtures the intellectual and leadership capacity of teachers, principals, and others in the school community.
- Enables teachers to develop further expertise in subject content, teaching strategies, uses of technologies, and other essential elements in teaching to high standards.
- Promotes continuous inquiry and improvement embedded in the daily life of schools.
- Is planned collaboratively by those who will participate in and facilitate that development.
- Requires substantial time and other resources.
- Is driven by a coherent long-term plan.
- Is evaluated ultimately on the basis of its impact on teacher effectiveness and student learning, and this assessment guides subsequent professional development efforts.

Purposes of Professional Development for Classroom Implications

National Staff Development Council; Designing Professional Development for Teachers

- Developing awareness builds knowledge and awareness in new content or approaches.
Strategies: professional networks, demonstration lessons, and study groups
- Building knowledge provides opportunities for teachers to develop knowledge and pedagogical practice
Strategies: case discussions, immersion experiences, workshops, technology for professional development, and partnerships with specialists in different fields like scientists or mathematicians
- Translating knowledge into practice draws on the teacher knowledge base to plan instruction and improve their teaching.
Strategies: coaching, mentoring, curriculum implementation, and demonstration lessons
- Practicing teaching is using a new approach, practice, or process with students.
Strategies: examining student work, lesson study, coaching, mentoring, and demonstration lessons
- Deep reflection engages teachers in examining their experiences in the classroom and assessing the impact of the changes they have made on their students which encourage teachers to reflect on their own practice.
Strategies: action research, study groups, lesson study, case discussions, and examining student work

The Department of Education recognizes that the professional development it sponsors must be viewed in the context of each district/school site in order for it to be effective. Although we can contribute to developing awareness, building content knowledge, and translating research into practice, professional development will only have an impact on practice if there is ongoing follow-up and follow-through at the local level. Therefore, we encourage districts and school leadership teams to attend state sponsored training whenever possible

By using the standards to guide professional development, school/program teams will benefit in the following ways:

Context standards

- Results in learning communities
- Promotes shared leadership
- Requires resources (time, money, and, sometimes, expertise that links professional development to student achievement)

Content standards

- Prepares educators to understand and appreciate all students, create supportive learning environments for them and have high expectations for their achievement
- Deepens educators' content knowledge and ability to provide instruction and assessment so students can meet high academic standards
- Provides educators with knowledge and skills to appropriately involve stakeholders outside the classroom

Process standards

- Encourages data collection and analysis
- Demonstrates using multiple sources of information to guide improvement and demonstrate the impact of change
- Uses learning strategies appropriate to intended outcome
- Encourages research based decision making
- Uses knowledge about how people learn and change
- Provides educators with the skills and knowledge to collaborate

Please Note: For the purposes of this catalog, a distinction between professional development and technical assistance is defined as follows:

Professional Development: Ongoing, intensive training focused on deepening content knowledge/skills and/or instructional strategies to more effectively teach state standards and support school improvement efforts

Technical Assistance: (1) Providing support in relation to regulatory mandates (2) Monitoring, assistance and guidance in implementing strategies a school or district has gained through formal professional development

Professional Development/ Technical Assistance Catalog

The Standards and Rubrics for School Improvement (PDF), are used by schools across our state in order to identify the strengths and limitations of their overall program. The Standards and Rubrics for School Improvement are anchored in the scientifically research-based principles and indicators that consistently distinguish top-performing schools. The indicators are defined within the following four standards:

Standard 1: School and District Leadership Capacity

Standard 2: Curriculum, Instruction, and Professional Development

Standard 3: Classroom and School Assessments

Standard 4: School Culture, Climate, and Communication

This professional development/technical assistance catalog is based around these standards, and lists offerings by function, not division:

INTENT	DESCRIPTION	OUTCOMES
To provide an opportunity for the target audience to examine the existing approach to meeting the needs of high school gifted students and how a school might modify that approach using an Advanced Placement or International Baccalaureate program. Audience/Targeted Attendees: Gifted education teachers (middle and high school), gifted education coordinators and administrators	This workshop challenges the audience to examine the existing notion that the appropriate gifted program for high school students is a successful Advanced Placement or International Baccalaureate program. After exploring the startling statistics concerning college success and the basics of each program, participants will be asked the question, "Is this sufficient to meet gifted students needs?" To assist in their deliberation, research from the gifted community will be presented. Ultimately, an answer to the problematic question will be provided with a potential solution explored.	Participants will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Examine the existing high school/middle school gifted education programs</li> <li>• Explain the basic tenets of an Advanced Placement or International Baccalaureate approach to the needs of gifted students</li> <li>• Assess the best practices that researchers in gifted education describe about the special need of those students</li> <li>• Look at Arizona law regarding the requirements for gifted education programs</li> <li>• React to a proposal for changes in the delivery of services to gifted students at the middle/high school level</li> </ul> Scheduling Questions: Sandra Skelton sandra.skelton@azed.gov Programmatic Contact: John Balentine john.balentine@azed.gov

Distance Learning 101: Teaching Adult Learners at a Distance (DL101)

Standards from the Standards and Rubrics for School Improvement
Standard 2

INTENT	DESCRIPTION	OUTCOMES
To assist adult educators in creating an effective distance education environment for their distance learning students. Audience/Targeted Attendees: Arizona's Adult Education instructors and administrators who are new to distance education	DL101 is a 6-8 week facilitated online professional learning opportunity that allows participants to learn about a topic, distance education, while also experiencing being a distance learner. The course is built around the Handbook of Distance Education for Adult Learners, a Project IDEAL publication, and a Web site that contains a variety of tools and resources for distance education, including five course exercises in the form of MS Word templates. In the beginning, the Web site serves as a virtual classroom for the course. Participants complete and submit the exercises and receive feedback from the facilitator. Additionally, participants take part in online discussions and conference calls relating to the exercises. As the course ends, the Web site's organization is adjusted and the site becomes a virtual resource area for educators to support their distance education efforts for the rest of the year.	Participants will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Learn about DL topics and simultaneously experience being a DL learner</li> <li>• Demonstrate understanding and discuss issues relating to DL Recruitment</li> <li>• Demonstrate understanding and discuss issues relating to DL Orientation</li> <li>• Demonstrate understanding and discuss issues relating to DL Instruction</li> <li>• Demonstrate understanding and discuss issues relating to DL Assessment</li> <li>• Demonstrate understanding and discuss issues relating to DL Administration</li> <li>• Create a Program Plan for the administration of the DL Project</li> </ul> Scheduling Questions and Programmatic Contact: Sheryl Hart sheryl.hart@azed.gov

Distance Learning 102: Study Groups (DL102)

Standards from the Standards and Rubrics for School Improvement
Standard 2

INTENT	DESCRIPTION	OUTCOMES
To help teachers deepen their understanding of a variety of learning challenges exhibited by ABE or ASE adult DL learners and expand their repertoire of instructional solutions. Audience/Targeted Attendees: Arizona's Adult Education instructors who have completed DL101	DL102: Study Groups is a 4-to-6 week professional learning opportunity consisting of a group of 5-to-8 DL instructors committed to improving their skills at meeting the needs of distance learners trying to master a particular curriculum. Each participant develops a case study of a difficult pedagogical problem he or she has faced teaching that curriculum and presents the case study to the group for discussion. The discussion takes place using a Web-based electronic discussion board under the guidance of a facilitator who helps participants refine their analytical skills and encourages them to develop solutions to the problems identified in each case. DL102, like DL101, provides teachers with experience being a distance learning student. In addition, DL102 builds a "community of practice" among participants. Through this process, each participant is provided with the support of a group of like-minded professionals who remain available to help solve new teaching-learning problems after the course is finished.	Participants will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Understand and discuss a variety of learning challenges exhibited by ABE or ESL learners</li> <li>• Develop a case study of a difficult and real-life pedagogical problem to present to the group</li> <li>• Analyze and discuss case studies presented by other group members</li> <li>• Develop and propose solutions pertaining to a variety of difficult pedagogical problems</li> <li>• Identify and share help tips and resources for solving specific learning problems</li> <li>• Create an expanded repertoire of instructional solutions</li> <li>• Help to build a "community of practice" within the group that will continue after the course is finished</li> </ul> Scheduling Questions and Programmatic Contact: Sheryl Hart sheryl.hart@azed.gov

Next STEPS: Small Group Instruction

Standards from the Standards and Rubrics for School Improvement
Standard 1, 2

INTENT	DESCRIPTION	OUTCOMES
To provide educators with a process to use data to make critical instructional decisions and provide effective instruction across a continuum of student needs. Audience/Targeted Attendees: Classroom teachers, specialists, and LEA leaders	Today's reading teachers and administrators have been taking notice of and feeling pressure to implement Response to Intervention. More commonly referenced as RTI, educational policy now requires schools to have a plan for ensuring that struggling readers receive the services they need to improve their reading abilities. RTI is a shared responsibility of all reading teachers. Under RTI, classroom teachers, special education and other specialists work together to use assessment coupled with analysis of that assessment, instruction and progress monitoring based upon the skills students need, and regular, systematic intervention to make sure students grow. RTI means data based decisions form the foundation for instruction and that instruction is dynamic, reflecting changes based on the student response to instruction. Teachers are in the best position to make these ongoing decisions and Next STEPS provides a tool for learning how to use fluency measures to guide instructional decisions.	Participants will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Apply the Outcomes Driven Model to design and deliver effective small group instruction</li> <li>• Analyze Curriculum Based Measures to form small groups for intervention</li> <li>• Use methods of direct, explicit, systematic instruction to support student learning</li> <li>• Apply principles of Best Practices to lesson design</li> </ul> Registration Questions: Yvonne Miles yvonne.miles@azed.gov

“What we share in common makes us human. How we differ makes us individuals. In a classroom with little or no differentiated instruction, only student similarities seem to take center stage. In a differentiated classroom, commonalities are acknowledged and built upon, and student differences become important elements in teaching and learning as well...students have multiple options for taking in information, making sense of ideas, and expressing what they learn. In other words, a differentiated classroom provides different avenues to acquiring content, to processing or making sense of ideas, and to developing products.”

SELECT Special Education Learning Experiences for Competency in Teaching

Standards from the Standards and Rubrics for School Improvement

Offering courses for special education teachers, administrators, and paraprofessionals to meet certification or re-certification requirements or to provide information for anyone working with children with disabilities. Audience/Targeted Attendees: Anyone needing information on working with children with disabilities, especially school personnel: regular and special education teachers, administrators, and paraprofessionals	SELECT primarily emphasizes coursework for personnel working on emergency special education certification. The classes also meet re-certification requirements for regular and special education teachers and SELECT courses provide special education training to people who want to expand their skills in working with children with disabilities. SELECT courses are graduate level and are equivalent to courses taught at state colleges and universities. The one valuable difference is that the SELECT program offers these classes outside of a degree program. This means that SELECT allows people statewide who don't have the time or the resources to complete a degree program access to the same classes and the same information. SELECT offers courses in most specialized certification areas such as Specific Learning Disability, Mild and Moderate Mental Retardation, Early Childhood Special Education, and Emotional Disability. There are no pre-requisites for SELECT courses so teachers can focus on taking needed classes for certification or endorsement in these areas. Courses are also offered on topics such as Autism, Traumatic Brain Injury, and Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder.	Participants will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Gain needed credit hours to meet certification requirements</li> <li>• Gain needed Professional Growth contact hours to meet re-certification requirements</li> <li>• Be exposed to best practices of special education</li> <li>• Meet and work with other educational professionals who share their day-to-day classroom experiences</li> </ul> Scheduling Questions and Programmatic Contact: Amy Grey amy.grey@nau.edu

AAD	Academic Achievement Division
Accountability	The extent to which an individual, group, or institution is held responsible for actions or performance. The formative and summative evaluation conducted for the purpose of reporting to organizations with supervisory or funding responsibility.
Achievement Gap	The difference between the actual student achievement levels assessed and the desired student achievement levels, including comparisons between sub-populations and the general student population.
ACEH	Arizona Coalition to End Homelessness
Action Plan	A plan that identifies how and when the school improvement plan will be implemented. It identifies the goals, support data, assessments, interventions, research, staff development, resources, timeline, and persons responsible for implementing the interventions and assessment contained in the school improvement plan.
ADE	The Arizona Department of Education
AIEA	Arizona Indian Education Association
Alternative Secondary Path to Certification	This is field-based program that provides an opportunity for mid-career changers to become a classroom teacher in grades 9-12. This program combines the strengths of each candidate's educational and career experience with intense training and college-level course work.
Assessment	A management system containing a set of assessments that is designed to collect and evaluate data about student performance. Each assessment must be aligned with at least one of the student performance goals in the improvement plan. The quality of assessments is described by using the terms "reliable," "valid," and "fair."
ATPA	Arizona Teacher Performance Assessment
Baseline data	Information collected which establishes the starting point from which change can be measured.

Benchmark	A point of reference embedded within a goal from which measurements may be made. Often serves as a measure, which is supported by data and helps quantify and qualify the achievement of the goal.
BIA	Bureau of Indian Affairs
CACFP	Child and Adult Care Food Program
Career Ladder	The Arizona Career Ladder Program is a performance-based compensation plan that provides incentives to teachers in 28 districts around the state who choose to make career advancements without leaving the classroom or the profession.
Classroom Management (CRM)	Classroom Management is a term used by many teachers to describe the process of ensuring lessons run smoothly without disruptive behavior by students. CRM is possibly the most difficult aspect of teaching for many teachers; closely lined to issues of motivations, discipline and respect
Classroom Site Fund	Monies from this fund are distributed to school districts and are intended for use at the school site. The money is to be used for teacher base salary increases, performance-based compensation, and/or maintenance and operation purposes. This fund is also known as "Prop 301" money.
Communication	The open, frequent, and appropriate flow of information and shared knowledge among parents, students, teachers, administrators, and other stakeholders. In content areas; an organized plan of instruction that utilizes reading, language arts, writing, mathematics, science, social studies, the arts and comprehensive health content standards to deliver instruction within a content-rich context; a multi-discipline approach to promote cross-curricular connections.
Criteria	Guidelines, rules, characteristics, or dimensions that are used to judge the quality of student performance. This information indicates what we value in student response, products, and/or performances.

Professional Development	Ongoing and extensive opportunities for teachers, staff, and parents to learn in different ways in order to acquire and internalize research-based instructional practices to support student learning.
Proficiency	Having or demonstrating an expected degree of knowledge or skill in a particular area.
Research-based	Refers to programs, practices and strategies that have been shown to be effective through rigorous, systematic and objective research.
Resources	Resources include all the human, financial, materials, supplies, and technological means of support for the school program and the school's program of improvement. Resources would also include the capacity a school has developed to promote continuous improvement efforts, improving the quality of teacher effectiveness, and the alignment of resources to the maximum level of use.
Resource Allocation	The monitoring and redirecting of resources (human and financial), including the coordination and integration of all federal, state, and local services and programs, to better meet student achievement goals.
Result	The end impact, effect, product or outcome.

Rubrics	A listing of specific criteria used to score constructed-response tasks in an assessment or assess strengths and/or weaknesses as a measure of school capacity for school improvement. A typical rubric contains a scoring scale, states all the different major traits or elements to be examined, and provides criteria for deciding what score to assign to responses or performances. Scales may be quantitative (e.g., a score from 1 to 6) or qualitative (e.g., “adequate performance” or “minimal competency”) or a combination of the two.
SBOE	State Board of Education
School Climate	A term that refers to issues associated with the emotional health of individuals and the organizational health within the school community.
School Community	The school community is comprised of all persons within the school and all persons in the attendance area of the school, as well as the geographical and physical environments.
School Culture	The intricate patterns of knowledge, beliefs, and values that serve as the basis for policy decisions, organizational practices, and human relationships in schools. Those patterns are often subtle and poorly understood yet exercise a profound influence on the lives of students, teachers, and other school personnel.
SBR	Scientifically-Based Research: Refers to programs, practices and strategies that have been shown to be effective through rigorous, systematic and objective research that is based on empirical and conclusive data.

Standards	Essential knowledge and skills that should be taught and learned in school, including the most important enduring ideas, issues, dilemmas, principles, and concepts from the disciplines. Standards are what students should know and be able to do and understand.
Standards-Based System	Curriculum, instruction, materials, assessment, and reporting are all aimed at the same target: helping students achieve the defined standards.
Sub-Contractors	The state of Arizona administers the federal grant awards to 28 school districts in the state of Arizona. These school districts, and their Indian Education programs are those not covered by Tribal education programs administering the Johnson O-Malley program. Subcontractors are now limited to the current 28 awardees, due to an extended stasis in federal funding.
Systematic	Refers to processes that are repeatable, logical and predictable, rather than anecdotal and episodic.
Systemic	Affecting or relating to an organization as a whole.
Teacher Attestation	The Teacher Attestation form is used to document the "highly qualified" status of teachers in core academic areas. This form is mandated by P.L. 107-110 No Child Left Behind Legislation.
Troops-To-Teachers	Since its creation in 1994, Troops to Teachers has assisted over 16,000 eligible military personnel to transition to a new career as public school teachers. State Offices provide participants with counseling and assistance regarding certification requirements, routes to state certification, and employment leads. Pending availability of funds, financial assistance may be provided to eligible individuals as stipends up to $5K to help pay for teacher certification costs or as bonuses of $10K to teach in schools serving a high percentage of students from low-income families. Participants who accept the Stipend or Bonus must agree to teach for three years in targeted schools in accordance with the authorizing legislation.
Vision	A vision statement is a clear description of the kind of system that will be needed to deliver the mission of the organization.
