Learn the basics of DNA, which testing companies assist genealogists and how testing helps your research. Understand how to test all of your lineage and the reasons for doing so.

A $30 gift certificate toward a DNA test at Family Tree DNA will be raffled to those who become members of the International Society of Genetic Genealogists (ISOGG) at the meeting. The certificate has no deadline and is transferable. Time will be given to answer questions .

Emily is a recently retired teacher who has researched her family's genealogy for over 37 years, traveling nationally and internationally for that purpose. She is the administrator of five email lists on Roots Web and another on Yahoo which helps genealogists and non-genealogists write their own family and personal memories. She teaches a monthly class on Genetic Genealogy at the Genealogical Forum of Oregon (Portland) which is open to the public. As the Speaker for and the Regional Coordinator of the International Society of Genetic Genealogists (ISOGG) for Oregon, Washington and Idaho, Emily gives presentations at any gathering on the subject of Genetic Genealogy and has done so since October 2005. She also manages eleven DNA projects through Family Tree DNA (FTDNA) which include surname, geographical and society projects. Since November 2005 she attended the annual FTDNA International DNA Conferences and has been a speaker for two sessions at the conference in 2007. In 2008, Emily was a speaker at the West Coast African-American Summit in Bellevue, Washington. In February 2009, she attended the genealogy and DNA conference in London called Who Do You Think You Are.

Willamette Valley Genealogical Society's

DNA Project WVGS has a DNA Project for both men and women.

To join under WVGS:

- 1. Go to the State Library URL at: http:// oregon.gov/OSL/GRES/genealogy.shtml
- 2. Click on Genealogy Research on the left.
- 3. Click on WVGS DNA Project.
- 4. Click on the Family Tree DNA icon in the middle of the page.
- 5. Scroll to the bottom of the next page and complete the form.
- 6. Click CONTINUE to complete the next screen.
- 7. Be sure to click only once when you are done so you order just one set.

You will receive a confirmation in your e-mail box that your order was taken. Remember: Only men can order the Y-DNA test, but both men and women can order the mtDNA. It is cheaper to order the Y-DNA 37 marker test as it will tell you that you have a common ancestor within genealogical time for persons you match. Lesser tests (12 markers) provide information on older ancestors prior to 600 years ago. However you may wish to start small and upgrade. For the mtDNA order both the HVR1 and HVR2 panels (mtDNA plus) as this will give you the best information on your ethnic origins. Again, you can start small and upgrade, if needed.

Questions?...

More information on Genetic Genealogy can be found at the following website by linking to its various pages (Click LEARN on the right side of the page): www.familytreedna.com. If any of you have questions regarding DNA and which tests to order, please e-mail Emily Aulicino at: aulicino@hevanet.com. Emily is WVGS' Project Administrator.

The DNA Project is open to anyone, not just WVGS members. You are not charged until you send in your test kit. You can do the DNA testing through WVGS and submit it to other groups.

Emily Aulicino will be the speaker for April 18th Meeting, so if you have questions on how to get started or what to do after you get your results, plan on attending the meeting!

WVGS Volunteers

Our agreement with the Oregon State Library relies on volunteers to allow WVGS to use the building. Each month this year there will be an article featuring one of the volunteers. If you would like to volunteer, contact Susie Niggli, the Volunteer Coordinator.

Pauline Mikkelsen

Pauline Mikkelsen is a new volunteer on Thursday mornings starting this January. She has been interested in genealogy for a long time, appreciates the people who have been helpful to her and wanted to return that. She retired in 1999, her husband retiring 5 years earlier, and she needed to catch up with him! She has always enjoyed the family stories from the past and learning how her ancestors lived.

Pauline's ancestry is Irish (coming in the early 1800's), English, and German. She's still searching for when her German ancestors came and where they were from. In 2000, she and her husband took a research trip in the US for 7 weeks, finding lots of information all the way back to Virginia. She has written family books on all four of her grandparents, with holes still to fill.

Having ancestry.com at the library is a great asset. She found her grandmother's siblings in cemetery records here. There are so many books tucked away, much more here at the Oregon State Library that it seems. Pauline enjoys helping others search too. It's that extra information that makes your day and makes the ancestors come alive.

Sheep to Shawl

The Mission Mill Museum in Salem will hosting a Heritage Expo Saturday, May 16th, 2009 from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm on the museum grounds in Salem. The Expo is a celebration of area heritage and is held in conjunction with the Museum's annual Sheep to Shawl which celebrates the history of the museum through sheep shearing, craft demonstrations, living history and entertainment. The event is free, open to the public and a lot of fun.

Ferne Hellie

Many of you have shared the Reference Desk with long time volunteer Ferne Hellie. Ferne passed away on Sunday, at her home on Croisan Creek, with family by her side. Her funeral took place at V.T. Golden Funeral Services, in Salem, on Friday March 27, 2009 at 2:00 PM. Ferne first began volunteering at OSL in 1995. Over the past 14 years she gave 1,156 hours of volunteer service in genealogy research at the Oregon State Library. In the last few years she spent much of this time researching biographical information on early Salem residents, who are buried in the Pioneer Cemetery, and adding this information to their web site: http:// www.salempioneercemetery.org/ The family has suggested memorial donations to the Northwest Vintage Car and Motorcycle Museum, where Ferne donated endless hours of her time and resources over the past 5 years. The Museum recently presented Ferne with a certificate dedicating their future library to be named the Ferne Hellie Library.

Ferne was a devoted and conscientious volunteer. She always had a sweet smile and patient approach with the patrons she helped throughout the years. She will be missed.

long project to locate all of these records and place them online here. The collection is a very important one, because during this time period the War Department was responsible for Indian affairs, veteran affairs, and naval affairs. The project was begun in earnest by Ted Crackel in the mid-1990s and it involved visits to over 200 repositories and consulting over 3,000 collections in the United States, Canada, England, France, and Scotland. Now, visitors can browse through 55,000 documents, and also perform detailed searches, complete with links to digitized images of each document. Interested parties can also browse the collection by year or person of interest. In short, this is an extremely valuable project that will be of interest to those with a penchant for American history, and early American military history in particular.

Geographic Areas being Researched by WVGS Members

Following is a list of the areas that WVGS members are currently researching. This information is from the registration forms for 2009. The goal of providing this information is to help members find other members who are researching the same area and may be able to help each other form research groups or find someone with expertise in the geographic area of interest. Addresses of WVGS members will be published in the Spring issue of Beaver Briefs so only e-mail and phone numbers are given here and only if members indicated that it is OK to publish such information.

Some West Virginia Cemeteries Not At Rest

In coal-mining country, battles over burial sites lead to court and new legislation. Small family cemeteries across West Virginia get in the way of development interests. Graves get lost as mining can make it difficult for families to gain access to burial grounds. Sometimes the land passed from one company to another, sometimes cemeteries are relocated, but more often families are losing track of where their ancestor's graves are located.

All Things Cherokee

If you have Cherokee ancestry, a website offering online resources is www.allthingscherokee. Free queries can be posted and searched, as well as looking for links and discussions. To find your ancestors on Cherokee Rolls will cost $25. You can also subscribe to the ATC newsletter. They also do Family Tree Research, for a fee, to help you find your ancestors.

WVGS Periodical List

One of the underused resources at the Oregon State Library is the large amount of periodicals available to visitors. We bring a selection out each month, but there are many more in the stacks. Boxes of periodicals can be checked out for you to peruse at your leisure! WVGS collects periodicals by exchanging with other societies, subscribing and donations. Journals, bulletins and quarterlies are then given to OSL to catalogued and kept. Below is a list of current exchanges and subscriptions. Current lists are published in each newsletter by Karen Farmer and kept in the Microfilm Room on the second floor.

Teen Interpretive Program

The Mission Mill Museum program provides a means for teens to place themselves in others' shoes by becoming a historical persona. The Oregon State Library is assisting by having Volunteers use library resources to find information about 40 different historical characters that were connected with the Thomas Kay Woolen Mill. They will then meet with the students to help them learn about the resources at the library and discover information about the character they will portray.
