April 2009 Passenger Airline Employment Down 5.5 Percent from April 2008

U.S. scheduled passenger airlines employed 5.5 percent fewer workers in April 2009 than in April 2008, the 10th consecutive decrease in full-time equivalent employee (FTE) levels for the scheduled passenger carriers from the same month of the previous year, the U.S. Department of Transportation's Bureau of Transportation Statistics (BTS) reported today (Table 1). FTE calculations count two part-time employees as one full-time employee.

All the network airlines decreased employment from April 2008 to April 2009 (Table 9) as did low-cost carriers AirTran Airways and Frontier Airlines (Table 12). Regional carriers American Eagle Airlines, SkyWest Airlines, ExpressJet Airlines, Comair, Atlantic Southeast Airlines, Pinnacle Airlines, Horizon Air, Mesa Airlines, Air Wisconsin Airlines, Republic Airlines, Colgan Airlines and PSA Airlines also reported reduced employment levels compared to last year (Table 15).

Scheduled passenger airline categories include network, low-cost, regional and other airlines.

The seven network carriers employed 265,200 FTEs in April, 67.5 percent of the passenger airline total, while low-cost carriers employed 16.3 percent and regional carriers employed 14.5 percent (Table 4).

American Airlines employed the most FTEs in April among the network carriers, Southwest Airlines employed the most FTEs among low-cost carriers, and American Eagle employed the most FTEs among regional carriers. Seven of the top 10 employers in the industry are network carriers (Table 6).

America West Airlines and US Airways now operate under a single certificate. Joint reporting began with October 2007 data. Before October 2007, US Airways' employment numbers were included with the network airlines, while America West's numbers were included with the low-cost airlines. Beginning with October 2007 data, US Airways' numbers are combined with America West's numbers in the network airlines category.

AIRLINE EMPLOYMENT PRESS RELEASE ADD ONE

Network Airlines

FTEs at the group of seven network carriers decreased 6.5 percent in April 2009 compared to April 2008, the eighth monthly decrease from the same month of the previous year after 16 consecutive months of year-over-year growth. Prior to an increase in May 2007, the network group had reduced FTEs from the previous year every month since September 2001 (Table 7).

Within the group, all network carriers decreased FTEs from April 2008 to April 2009: United Airlines, 13.1 percent; Delta Air Lines, 7.4 percent; Alaska Airlines, 5.8 percent; US Airways, 5.4 percent; American, 4.3 percent; Continental Airlines, 4.0 percent; and Northwest Airlines, 3.3 percent (Table 9).

FTEs at four network carriers declined during the four years from April 2005 to April 2009. The biggest percentage decline was at Northwest, down 25.6 percent, a reduction of 9,700 FTEs, followed by United at 17.6 percent. The other FTE decreases during that time were Delta, down 14.4 percent, and American, down 7.3 percent. The increases were at Continental, 8.6 percent; Alaska, 2.7 percent; and the recently combined US Airways, 39.9 percent (Table 9).

Network carriers operate a significant portion of their flights using at least one hub where connections are made for flights to down-line destinations or spoke cities.

Low-Cost Airlines

Low-cost carrier FTEs increased 2.2 percent in April from April 2008. This was the second month over month employment increase since the America West and US Airways reports were combined in October 2007 following five consecutive monthly decreases. Low-cost carrier FTEs had decreased each month for 12 consecutive months through September compared to the same month of the previous year, but the previous year numbers included America West while the recent data did not (Tables 10, 11).

Five low-cost carriers reported year-to-year increases: Virgin America, 80.5 percent; Allegiant Airlines, 11.2 percent; Southwest, 4.1 percent; Spirit Airlines, 3.9 percent; and JetBlue Airways, 1.2 percent. AirTran and Frontier reported year-to-year FTE decreases (Table 12).

Low-cost carriers are those that the industry recognizes as operating under a low-cost business model, with lower infrastructure and aircraft operating costs.

Regional Airlines

Regional carrier FTEs were down 7.4 percent in April 2009 compared to April 2008 (Table 13).

ExpressJet, down 29.2 percent, and PSA, down 15.1 percent, reported the largest decreases in the regional group. Compass Airlines, up 61.0 percent, and GoJet Airlines, up 33.1 percent, reported the largest increases in the group (Table 15).

Regional carrier FTEs rose from 56,574 in April 2005 to 56,778 in April 2009, an increase of 0.4 percent (Table 14).

The 12 regional carriers reporting employment data in both 2005 and 2009 employed 7.2 percent fewer FTEs in April 2009 than in April 2005. PSA reported the largest percentage decline, down 43.2 percent, followed by Air Wisconsin, down 27.7 percent, and Atlantic Southeast, down 26.1 percent. American Eagle, ExpressJet, Comair, Mesa and Executive Airlines also reported fewer FTEs in April 2009 than April 2005 (Table 15).

Pinnacle reported the biggest four-year gain, 19.6 percent, followed by Mesaba Airlines at 19.3 percent and SkyWest at 17.8 percent (Table 15).

Regional carriers typically provide service from small cities, using primarily regional jets to support the network carriers' hub and spoke systems.

Reporting Notes

Airlines that operate at least one aircraft with the capacity to carry combined passengers, cargo and fuel of 18,000 pounds – the payload factor – must report monthly employment statistics.

The Other Carrier category generally reflects those airlines that operate within specific niche markets, such as Continental Micronesia and Hawaiian Airlines serving the Hawaiian Islands.

Data are compiled from monthly reports filed with BTS by commercial air carriers as of June 10. Additional airline employment data can be found on the BTS website at http://www.bts.gov/programs/airline\_information/number\_of\_employees/. BTS has scheduled release of May airline employment data for July 21.
