Williston Regional Child Support Office moving to new location

BISMARCK, N.D. – The North Dakota Department of Human Services' Williston Regional Child Support Enforcement Office is moving to the lower level of the US Bank Building, 202 Main Street, Williston, during the first week of March.

Child Support Enforcement Division Director Mike Schwindt said the office relocation will temporarily interrupt some services. The current court house location will close to walk-in business March 3-5 as work stations and office equipment are moved. During the move, customers can receive service by calling 1-800-231-4255.

The regional child support enforcement unit will open March 6 at the new location. Customer parking is located on the east side of the building. Telephone and fax numbers will remain the same. Customers can phone the office at 701-774-7940 or send a fax to 701-774-4332.

The Williston Regional Child Support Enforcement Unit employs 7 people. They establish and enforce child support and medical support obligations, establish paternity, and conduct reviews and modifications of court orders.
