

Buying a Vehicle

What do I need when buying a vehicle (changing vehicle ownership)?

Buying a vehicle with ND title.

- Part 1 (Seller's Assignment & Warranty of Title) must be signed and dated by owner(s) (seller) as shown on the front of the title. Name and address of new owner must be typed or printed legibly. Odometer information required on all motor vehicles less than ten (10) years old, with buyer's signature, printed name, and date.
- Part 3 (Purchaser's Certification and Application) must be completed and signed by buyer showing purchase price, lienholder information, if applicable, and signature and date.
- If vehicle is less than nine (9) years old we must have a SFN 18609 Damage Disclosure Statement form completed in full by seller.
- Taxes due on 5% of the purchase price.
- Title transfer fee of $5.00 due.
- License fees due are based on the first year registered and weight of the vehicle.

Buying a vehicle with an out-of-state title or MCO.
