

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
 OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

June 28, 1996

DETERMINATION WITH RESPECT TO TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS PURSUANT TO PUBLIC LAW 104-53.

Under Section 211 of Public Law 104-53, the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, 1996 (109 Stat. 535), the functions of the Comptroller General identified in Sec. 211(b) of that Act are transferred to the Director of the Office of Management and Budget effective June 30, 1996. Pursuant to Sec. 211(a) of that Act, the Director may delegate any such function, in whole or in part, to any other agency or agencies if the Director determines that such delegation would be cost-effective or otherwise in the public interest, and may transfer to such agency or agencies any personnel, budget authority, records, and property received by the Director pursuant to the transfer that relate to the delegated functions.

I have determined that it would be cost-effective and otherwise in the public interest for the functions identified in Sec. 211(b) to be delegated in whole to other agencies, in the manner specified in Attachment A. Accordingly, effective June 30, 1996, such functions are delegated, in whole, to the respective agencies as specified in Attachment A (the functions under 31 U.S.C. 3702 are delegated in part to the Department of Defense, in part to the General Services Administration, and in part to the Office of Personnel Management).

In addition, I have determined that the personnel, budget authority, records, and property (including contracts), as described below, relate to the delegated functions. Accordingly, effective June 30, 1996, such personnel, budget authority, records, and property (including contracts) are transferred to the respective agencies in the manner specified below.

A. Personnel and positions:

The onboard personnel and vacant positions associated with the transferred functions are delegated by agency as shown below. A description of the general subject matter associated with the functions and the statutory authorities to be exercised are in Attachment A.

B. Budget Authority:

Budget authority for the transferred functions is provided under the General Accounting Office appropriation for the remainder of fiscal year 1996. This order transfers appropriations for the fourth quarter of 1996 according to Attachment B. A budget amendment for FY 1997 will be submitted to allocate funding, where applicable, to the affected agencies.

C. Records:

The General Accounting Office agrees to make records available on an as-needed basis. OMB does not have custody of any other active or inactive records.

D. Property (including Contracts):

The General Accounting Office will transfer all property (including contracts) on an agency-by-agency basis.
