

IMPORTANT: Please read these instructions carefully before completing ETA Form 9089 – Application for Permanent Employment Certification. These instructions contain full explanations of the questions and attestations that make up Form ETA 9089.

Any employer or alien, or their agent or attorney, who knowingly and willingly furnishes any false information in the preparation of ETA Form 9089 and any supporting documentation, or aids, abets, or counsels another to do so is committing a federal offense, punishable by fine or imprisonment up to five years or both (18 U.S.C. §§ 2, 1001). Other penalties apply as well to fraud or misuse of this immigration document and to perjury with respect to this form (18 U.S.C. §§ 1546, 1621).

Employing or continuing to employ an alien unauthorized to work in the United States is illegal and may subject the employer to criminal prosecution, civil money penalties, or both.

Privacy Statement Information

In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (5 U.S.C. 552a), you are hereby notified that the information provided herein is protected under the Privacy Act. The Department of Labor (Department) maintains a System of Records titled Employer Application and Attestation File for Permanent and Temporary Alien Workers (DOL/ETA-7) that includes this record.

Under routine uses for this system of records, case files developed in processing labor certification applications, labor condition applications, or labor attestations may be released as follows: in connection with appeals of denials before the DOL Office of Administrative Law Judges and Federal courts, records may be released to the employers that filed such applications, their representatives, to named alien beneficiaries or their representatives, and to the DOL Office of Administrative Law Judges and Federal courts; and in connection with administering and enforcing immigration laws and regulations, records may be released to such agencies as the DOL Office of Inspector General, Employment Standards Administration, the Department of Homeland Security, and the Department of State.

Further relevant disclosures may be made in accordance with the Privacy Act and under the following circumstances: in connection with federal litigation; for law enforcement purposes; to authorized parent locator persons under Pub. L. 93-647; to an information source or public authority in connection with personnel, security clearance, procurement, or benefit-related matters; to a contractor or their employees, grantees or their employees, consultants, or volunteers who have been engaged to assist the agency in the performance of Federal activities; for Federal debt collection purposes; to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with its legislative review, coordination, and clearance activities; to a Member of Congress or their staff in response to an inquiry of the Congressional office made at the written request of the subject of the record; in connection with records management; and to the news media and the public when a matter under investigation becomes public knowledge, the Solicitor of Labor determines the disclosure is necessary to preserve confidence in the integrity of the Department, or the Solicitor of Labor determines that a legitimate public interest exists in the disclosure of information, unless the Solicitor of Labor determines that disclosure would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

Regulatory Information

The permanent labor certification program is governed by the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. 1101 et seq. and 20 CFR part 656. This regulation can be found at <http://workforcesecurity.doleta.gov/foreign/perm.asp>. Employers applying for labor certification must comply with all regulatory and statutory requirements.

How to File

A. Who May File:

An employer who desires to apply for a labor certification, for occupations other than sports, on behalf of an alien must file Form ETA 9089.

B. How/Where to File

1. For all occupations other than Schedule A and Shepherders, ETA Form 9089 must be submitted to the Department of Labor for processing in one of two ways:
  - Online. Employers can complete and submit their permanent applications online at the following web address: <http://www.plc.doleta.gov>.
  - Mail. Applications can be mailed to the DOL Application Processing Center serving the state where the job will be located. Addresses and a downloadable form and instructions can be found at the following web address: <http://workforcesecurity.doleta.gov/foreign/>.
2. Applications for Shepherders and Schedule A occupations are granted or denied by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS). All applications for Shepherders and Schedule A labor certifications must be mailed to the USCIS service center serving the state where the job will be located. Addresses can be found at: <http://www.uscis.gov>
3. All application information (a copy of certified Form ETA 9089, recruitment information, re-filing information (if applicable), etc...) must be retained by the employer or their attorney/agent for five years from the date of filing the Application for Permanent Employment Certification.

Section A

Refiling Instructions

Employers that filed applications under the previous regulations (Form ETA 750) may, if the employer has not yet commenced the recruitment process by having a State Workforce Agency file a job order, refile applications under the current regulations (ETA Form 9089) without loss of the previous filing date by the following process:

The application must be for the identical job opportunity filed under the previous regulations, and the employer must comply with all of the filing and recruiting requirements of the current regulation.

The employer must withdraw the case involving the identical job opportunity under the previous regulations and refile under the current regulations. Withdrawal instructions can be found at <http://workforcesecurity.doleta.gov/foreign/>

1. If this application was previously submitted under the former permanent application process (Form ETA-750), select Yes to keep your original priority date. Otherwise, select No.
- 1-A. Enter the date you filed the application under the former permanent application process (Form ETA 750). Enter the date in mm/dd/yyyy format.
- 1-B. Enter the case number assigned by the SWA or local office to the application you submitted under the former permanent application process (Form ETA 750).

Section B

Schedule A or Shepherd Information

1. Select Yes or No. If Yes, do not send the application to the Department of Labor. All applications in support of Schedule A or Shepherd Occupations must be sent directly to the appropriate Department of Homeland Security (DHS) office. Consult the DHS website (<http://uscis.gov>) or the blue pages in your local phone directory for the address of the DHS office that serves the area where the alien will work.

6. Enter the city, state or province, country and postal code of the agent or attorney.
7. Enter the full business e-mail address of the agent or attorney.

Section F

Prevailing Wage Information

Before you can complete this section of the form, you must secure a Prevailing Wage Determination (PWD) from the State Workforce Agency (SWA) responsible for the state in which the work will be performed. A listing of SWAs and their contact information can be found at: <http://workforcesecurity.doleta.gov/map.asp>

1. Enter the prevailing wage tracking number assigned by the SWA. This field is optional as not all states assign a code.
2. Enter the Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code (or O*NET/OES extension) specific to the occupation listed in the prevailing wage determination request. Further information concerning SOC codes can be found at: <http://ows.doleta.gov/foreign/>
3. Enter the occupational title associated with the SOC/O*NET(OES) code as determined by the SWA.
4. Enter the skill level of the job subject to this application as determined by the SWA.
5. Enter the prevailing wage rate for the job as assigned by the SWA in the PWD. Select whether the offered wage is in terms of hour, week, bi-weekly, month, or year.
6. Identify the source of the prevailing wage from among the following: Occupational Employment Statistics (OES), Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA), Employer Conducted Survey, Davis-Bacon Act (DBA), McNamara-O'Hara Service Contract Act (SCA), or Other.
  - 6-A. If Other is identified for question 6, enter the name of the prevailing wage source as determined by the SWA.
7. Enter the date the prevailing wage was issued by the appropriate SWA. Enter the date in mm/dd/yyyy format.
8. Enter the expiration date of the validity period of the PWD received from the appropriate SWA. Enter the date in mm/dd/yyyy format.

Section G
Wage Offer Information

1. Enter the wage rate to be paid to the employee. If the wage offer is expressed as a range, enter the bottom of the wage range to be paid in the From section and enter the top of the wage range to be paid in the optional To section.

Identify whether the wage rate to be paid is in terms of per hour, week, bi-weekly, month, or year (you may only select one).

Section H
Job Opportunity Information

1. Enter the full address of the primary site or location where the work will actually be performed.
2. Enter the city, state, and postal code of the primary site or location where the work will actually be performed.
3. Enter the common name or payroll title of the job being offered.
4. Select the minimum level of education required to adequately perform the duties of the job being offered.
  - 4-A. If Other was selected for question 4, identify the education required. Examples are MD and JD.
  - 4-B. Enter the major field of study required in reference to Question 4. Skip this question if the answer to question 4 is None or High School.
5. Select Yes or No to identify whether or not training is required for the job. Do not duplicate the time requirements. For example, time required in training should not also be listed in education or experience. Do not include restrictive requirements that are not actual business necessities for performance of the job and that would limit consideration of other qualified U.S. workers.
  - 5-A. If the answer to question 5 is Yes, enter the number of months of training that is required.
  - 5-B. If the answer to question 5 is Yes, enter the field of training that is required for the job offered.
6. Select Yes or No to identify whether experience in the job offered is a requirement.
  - 6-A. If the answer to question 6 is Yes, enter the number of months experience that are required for the job.
7. Select Yes or No to indicate if an alternate field of study is acceptable. This field of study is alternate to the major field of study indicated in question 4-B.
  - 7-A. If the answer to question 7 is Yes, enter the alternate field of study that is acceptable for the job offered.
8. Select Yes or No to indicate if there is an alternate combination of education and experience in the job offered that will be accepted in lieu of the minimum education requirement identified in question 4 of this section. For example, if the requirement is bachelors + 2 years experience but the employer will accept a masters + 1 year experience, an alternate combination of education and experience exists.
  - 8-A. If the answer to question 8 is Yes, select the alternate level of education that is acceptable in combination with the number of months of experience specified in question 8-C.
  - 8-B. If the answer to question 8-A is Other, enter the alternate level of education that is acceptable.
  - 8-C. If the answer to question 8 is Yes, enter the number of months of experience in the job offered that is acceptable in combination with the level of education specified in question 8-A.

Section H Continued

9. Select Yes or No to indicate if a foreign educational equivalent is acceptable.
10. Select Yes or No to indicate if experience in an alternate occupation is acceptable.
  - 10-A. If the answer to question 10 is Yes, enter the number of months of experience in the alternate occupation that is required for the job offered.
  - 10-B. If the answer to question 10 is Yes, enter the alternate occupation that is acceptable for the job offered.
11. Describe the job duties. Detail what would be performed by any worker filling the job. Specify equipment used and pertinent working conditions.
12. Select Yes or No to indicate if the job opportunity's requirements as specified in questions H-4 to H-11 are normal for the occupation being offered. If the answer to this question is No, the employer must be prepared to provide documentation demonstrating that the job requirements are supported by business necessity.
13. Select Yes or No to indicate if knowledge of a foreign language is required to perform the job duties. If the answer to this question is Yes, the employer must be prepared to provide documentation demonstrating that the language requirements are supported by business necessity.
14. Enter the job related requirements. Examples are shorthand and typing speeds, specific foreign language proficiency, and test results. The employer must be prepared to document business necessity for a foreign language requirement.
15. Select Yes or No to identify whether or not the job includes a combination of occupations. For example, engineer-pilot.
16. Select Yes or No to indicate if the position identified in this application is being offered to the alien identified in Section J.
17. Select Yes or No to indicate if the job requires the alien to live on the employer's premises.
18. Select Yes or No to identify whether the application is for a live-in domestic service worker. Domestic service workers refer to "private household workers." The domestic service must be performed in or about the private home of the employer whether that home is a fixed place of abode or a temporary dwelling as in the case of an individual or family traveling on vacation. A separate and distinct dwelling maintained by an individual or a family in an apartment house, condominium, or hotel may constitute a private home.
  - 18-A. If the answer to question 18 is Yes, select whether the employer and the alien have executed an employment contract and the employer has provided a copy of the contract to the alien. Select NA (not applicable) if the answer to question 18 is No.
