

Dr. Jerry "Doc" Semper

---

Special Assistant To Prince
George's County States Attorney

Identifying Possible Gang Affiliation

---

Possible Warning Signs May Include:

- Family Conflict – Curfew Violations
- Talking Back
- Lack Of Communication
- Changes In Behavior/ Attitude
- Dress Style
- Increase In Material Possessions And Cash

Identifying Possible Gang Affiliation

---

- Trouble At School
- Low Commitment To School
- Friends In A Gang

Seek To Eliminate These Negatives

---

- Family Disorganization
- Lack Of Positive Male Role Models
- Sibling Anti-Social Behavior

- Negative Labeling By Teachers
- Educational Frustration

Interventions

---

- Develop Networks That Link Existing Organizations That Work With Gang Members And High Risk Youth
- Provide Access To Academic, Economic And Social Opportunities
- Promote Organizational Change

Interventions

---

- Develop The Ability To Communicate About And Recognize Gangs
- Encourage Practical Citizen Involvement

Family

---

- The Key To Anti-Gang Involvement

- If There Is No Positive Family Interaction, Then The Gang Will Be.....

Contact Information

---

- Dr. Jerry “Doc” Semper
- 301 780 7748 Prince George’s States Attorney
- jlsemper@Co.Pg.Md.Us e-mail

- 301 925 8940 Semper Associates
- www.Semperassociates.com web site