

Application Fees

The application fee is required for a complete application. To avoid unnecessary delays, please remit the fee at the time you submit the application. We request that you mail your payment separately to our lockbox address. Instructions on where to mail your payment and application are on the first page of the application form and at the end of this document.

To determine the fee for your removal-fill permit, determine the volume of removal and/or fill and add it to the base fee listed at left below for the appropriate applicant category (private, public, or commercial operator). If the project involves both removal and fill, pay the fee associated with fill activities.

Removal application base fees:	Removal volume fees:
Private operators ($85)	Less than 500 cubic yards	None
	500 to 4,999 cubic yards	$125

Erosion-flood repair (necessary to preserve existing facilities and land from flood and high stream flows) or a voluntary habitat restoration project does not require a fee.

Emergency authorizations require a fee, based on the base and volume fees listed in the above fee schedule. The fee must be submitted within 45 days of the date the emergency authorization is granted.

Applicant categories are defined as follows:

“Commercial operator” means any person undertaking a project having financial profit as a goal.

“Private operator” means any person undertaking a project for exclusively a non-income-producing and nonprofit purpose.

“Public body” means federal, state and local governmental bodies, unless specifically exempted by law, engaged in projects for the purpose of providing free public services.
