Acknowledgments

This publication outlines the steps necessary for starting a center-based child care program, and includes a variety of agency and organizational contacts who can provide technical and other assistance throughout this process.

Illinois Child Care: Developing Center-Based Programs is part of the Illinois Child Care series. It was funded by the Illinois Department of Human Services and produced under the guidance of USDA Rural Development-Illinois and Child Care Resource Service at the University of Illinois by Anna Barnes Communications. Additional assistance was provided by the members of the Illinois Child Care Task Force:

Central Illinois Economic Development Corporation
Illinois Chamber of Commerce
Illinois Department of Children and Family Services
Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs
Illinois Network of Child Care Resource and Referral Agencies
Illinois Office of the State Treasurer
Illinois Easter Seals Society
Inclusive Environments Inc.
Nutrition For Children, Inc.
Rural Partners
University of Illinois Extension

Special thanks to Lesia Oesterreich and Iowa State University Extension for permission to use Child Care: Financial Basics (PM-1751) as a template for a portion of this publication.

Other publications in the Illinois Child Care series include:

Illinois Child Care: A Guide for Family Home Providers
Illinois Child Care: Developing Community Programs
Illinois Child Care: Options for Employers
