Committee on Oversight and Government Reform

Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Ms. Amerling:

Pursuant to Rule 22 of the Rules of the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, my client, Susan Ralston, hereby submits this letter setting forth her reasons for the three minor substantive clarifications she made to the transcript of her deposition, which she timely reviewed last Thursday, May 24, 2007. In accordance with the Committee's Rules, Ms. Ralston has already corrected and signed the transcript. We therefore request that the changes indicated on the following lines of the transcript be made to the official transcript or included as an appendix, as provided for by Rule 22:

1. Page 28, line 7. This change was necessary to dispel any misimpression that Mr. Rove's office did not have a political printer at any point in time. In fact, Mr. Rove's office did eventually receive a political printer.
2. Page 28, line 17. This change was necessary to make clear that the White House Office of Records Management maintained official White House files and would not invariably have received files or printouts of e-mails that were of a personal or non-official nature.
3. Page 84, line 19. This change was necessary to better reflect Ms. Ralston's actual recollection of the use of the RNC e-mail account by Annie Mayol, as she does not specifically know how often Ms. Mayol used her RNC e-mail account.
