v.

CASE NO. 6:09-cr-14-ORL-19-KRS
26 U.S.C. § 7203

JIMMIE L. THORPE
a/k/a Jim Thorpe

INFORMATION

The United States Attorney charges:

COUNT ONE

At all times material to this Information:

1. Defendant JIMMIE L. THORPE, a/k/a Jim Thorpe, was a professional golfer on the Professional Golf Association (PGA) Champions Tour, formerly known as the PGA Senior Tour.
2. Defendant JIMMIE L. THORPE, a/k/a Jim Thorpe, earned income playing in PGA events and from various endorsements, including Harrison Sports and Callaway Golf, and sponsors, including Foxwoods Casino.
3. JLT, Inc. was a Florida corporation incorporated in September 1998 in which defendant JIMMIE L. THORPE, a/k/a Jim Thorpe, was the sole officer and director.
4. Defendant JIMMIE L. THORPE, a/k/a Jim Thorpe, during 2002, 2003, and 2004, did not make any estimated tax payments and only had taxes withheld in the amount of approximately $2,991.42, although his accountant had discussed the necessity of paying estimated taxes with defendant JIMMIE L. THORPE, a/k/a Jim Thorpe.

5. Defendant JIMMIE L. THORPE, a/k/a Jim Thorpe, although he filed with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) extensions of time in which to file his personal income tax returns and corporate income tax returns (JLT, Inc.) for the tax years 2002, 2003, and 2004, did not make any payments for personal income taxes with said extensions.

6. Defendant JIMMIE L. THORPE, a/k/a Jim Thorpe, did not timely file his 2000 and 2001 personal income tax returns.

7. Defendant JIMMIE L. THORPE, a/k/a Jim Thorpe, did not timely pay the income tax due and owing on his 2000 and 2001 personal income tax returns.

8. Defendant JIMMIE L. THORPE, a/k/a Jim Thorpe, was previously investigated by Internal Revenue Service, Criminal Investigation, in Buffalo, New York, for failing to file his 1992 through 1995 income tax returns. Defendant JIMMIE L. THORPE, a/k/a Jim Thorpe, asserted at that time that: (a) he had two accountants; (b) he thought they were handling his tax matters; and (c) his returns were being filed. Based upon the alleged reliance of defendant JIMMIE L. THORPE, a/k/a Jim Thorpe, on his accountants, defendant JIMMIE L. THORPE, a/k/a Jim Thorpe, was not criminally prosecuted at that time.

9. During the years 2002, 2003, and 2004, defendant JIMMIE L. THORPE, a/k/a Jim Thorpe, received a total of at least $1,700,000.00 in gambling winnings, which he then used to continue gambling.

10. Rather than paying his tax liabilities for the tax years 2002, 2003, and 2004, defendant JIMMIE L. THORPE, a/k/a Jim Thorpe, made expenditures for personal items such as: (a) the construction of a new $2,000,000 (approximately) home, and (b) a $61,000 (approximately) vehicle.

11. That during the calendar year 2002,

JIMMIE L. THORPE

the defendant herein, who was a resident of Lake Mary, Seminole County, Florida, in the Middle District of Florida, had and received gross income of approximately $1,479,485.00; that by reason of such gross income he was required by law, following the close of the calendar year 2002, and on or before October 15, 2003, to make an income tax return to the Director, Internal Revenue Service Center at Atlanta, Georgia, or to the person assigned to receive returns at the local office of the Internal Revenue Service at Maitland, Florida, or other proper officer of the United States, stating specifically the items of his gross income and any deductions and credits to which he was entitled; that well-knowing and believing all of the foregoing, he did willfully fail to make an income tax return to said Director of the Internal Revenue Service Center, to said person assigned to receive returns at the local office of the Internal Revenue Service, or to any other proper officer of the United States.
