CMI/ECF Appellate

This is a screen shot of the CM/ECF Event Selection menu. To file a document, begin by selecting an “Event Category” from the box or frame on the left side of the screen. Here, “Select an event category below” is the default selection. The Event Category selection determines the events which will appear in the “Event” box or frame on the right side of the screen. Here, “Select an event category below” appears as the event related to “Select an Event Category to the left”. Please do not use this event or category to file, you must select the appropriate category of event from the list. When other Events are docketed, other relief categories or reliefs may be presented. The following list shows the Event Categories which are available for filers, along with the events, relief categories and reliefs available for those event categories. Event categories are shown in red, with events in blue, relief categories in black and reliefs in green.
