

APPLICATION FOR WAIVER OF THE CHAPTER 7 FILING FEE
FOR INDIVIDUALS WHO CANNOT PAY THE FILING FEE
IN FULL OR IN INSTALLMENTS

The court fee for filing a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code is $299.

If you cannot afford to pay the full fee at the time of filing, you may apply to pay the fee in installments. A form Application to Pay the Filing Fee in Installments must be completed. This form is available from the clerk’s office. If your application to pay in installments is approved, you will be permitted to file your petition, completing payment of the fee as stated in the order entered granting the application to pay the filing fee in installments.

If you cannot afford to pay the fee either in full at the time of filing or in installments, then you may request a waiver of the filing fee by completing this application and filing it with the Clerk of Court. A judge will decide whether you have to pay the fee. By law, the judge may waive the fee only if your income is less than 150 percent of the official poverty line applicable to your family size and you are unable to pay the fee in installments. 150 percent of the poverty guidelines are listed below.

Required information. Complete all items in the application, and attach requested schedules. Then sign the application on the last page. If you and your spouse are filing a joint bankruptcy petition, you both must provide information as requested and both sign the application.

APPLICATION FOR WAIVER OF THE CHAPTER 7 FILING FEE FOR INDIVIDUALS WHO CANNOT PAY THE FILING FEE IN FULL OR IN INSTALLMENTS

The court fee for filing a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code is $299.

If you cannot afford to pay the full fee at the time of filing, you may apply to pay the fee in installments. A form, which is available from the bankruptcy clerk's office, must be completed to make that application. If your application to pay in installments is approved, you will be permitted to file your petition, generally completing payment of the fee over the course of four to six months.

If you cannot afford to pay the fee either in full at the time of filing or in installments, you may request a waiver of the filing fee by completing this application and filing it with the Clerk of Court. A judge will decide whether you have to pay the fee. By law, the judge may waive the fee only if your income is less than 150 percent of the official poverty line applicable to your family size and you are unable to pay the fee in installments. You may obtain information about the poverty guidelines at www.azb.uscourts.gov or in the bankruptcy clerk's office.

Required information. Complete all items in the application, and attach requested schedules. Then sign the application on the last page. If you and your spouse are filing a joint bankruptcy petition, you both must provide information as requested and sign the application.

Note:

- ▶ Failure to provide all the information requested in the application may result in denial of the fee waiver.
- ▶ If the application is granted, the waiver will apply only to the fee for the filing of the petition and will not apply to any other filing fee that may become due during the pendency of the case. Further, the order granting the waiver is subject to being vacated at a later time if developments in the administration of the bankruptcy case demonstrate that the waiver was unwarranted.
- ▶ If the application is denied, the debtor will be required to pay the fee in full or in installments according to deadlines set by the court. Failure to pay timely may result in dismissal of the bankruptcy case. In addition, the debtor may not make any additional payment or transfer any additional property to an attorney or any other person for services in connection with the case until the filing fee is paid in full.
- ▶ If the matter is scheduled for a hearing, the debtor will be required to appear before the court. Failure to appear at the hearing may be deemed the debtor's consent to entry of an order denying the application.
