F1 Customer Guide

When USCIS receives your application or petition, we process your case in the order received by application type to be fair to all our customers. If you want to check on your case after filing, USCIS offers a variety of services for you to follow up on your application or petition.

Case Status Questions

First check our Case Status Online at: www.uscis.gov

- Online Questions: When your application is received by a USCIS Service Center or the National Benefits Center, we will mail you a receipt notice. The receipt notice will have all of the important information you need about your case. With your receipt number, you can check the status of your case on www.uscis.gov and also register on our website for automatic case status updates while we process your case.
- Processing Times: Applications are processed by visa preference category in the order they are received. Average processing times for all applications are posted on our website. Processing times are an estimate of how long it will take to process your case from start to finish. Each case is different; so some cases may take longer than others to process. If you use your receipt number to check your case status and track the processing of your case, please remember that we will only research your case if it is beyond our current processing times. Processing times are updated monthly, and you can check processing times by visiting www.uscis.gov.

Check on your case by calling Customer Service at:
1-800-375-5283

If you cannot find information on your pending case on our website, please call Customer Service. We recommend that you have your receipt number or "A number" available so we can research your case. If Customer Service is unable to find any current information on your case, they will send an electronic message to the local office that has your case. You should receive a response to your question within 30 days from the local office.

Schedule an InfoPass Appointment

If Customer Service is unable to assist you with the information you need on a pending application, or you have a time-sensitive issue such as a personal emergency, you can schedule an InfoPass appointment for your local office to inquire about your case. To make an InfoPass appointment, go to www.infopass.uscis.gov. You will need access to a computer with an Internet connection and Internet Explorer 4.0 or above, Netscape 4.0 or above, or other similar browser.

Visit our website at www.uscis.gov to:

- Change your address if you move and have a pending application;

- To obtain immigration forms, and you do not have access to a computer and printer;
- If more than 30 days have passed since you received your Welcome Notice after becoming a permanent resident, and you have not yet received your Permanent Resident Card;
- If more than 75 days have passed since you filed Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, and there are no public advisories from USCIS (published on the USCIS website) that affect your case type;
- If Case Status Online says that we approved or denied your case more than 14 days ago, and you have not yet received our approval or denial notice;
- If you have a pending Form I-129, Petition for Nonimmigrant Worker, and you need to change the names of the persons on the petition or the port of entry where they will be applying for their visa;
- If you want to request that original documents submitted with your case be returned to you.

A Few Things to Remember

- What You Need When You Call—Tracking information on individual cases is only available to customers whose cases have a receipt number. We manage other cases based on your account, using an A-number (starting with "A," followed by an eight- or nine-digit number). For these cases, you can monitor processing time for your type of case, but not your individual case.
- If You Want to Pay for Faster Processing—Premium Processing Service provides faster processing of certain employment-based petitions and applications. Specifically, USCIS provides 15-calendar-day processing if you wish to use this service or USCIS will refund the premium processing fee and the case will continue to receive faster processing. We know that circumstances can change; so this program is available even after you file. For more information about which forms are eligible for premium processing, see our website at www.uscis.gov or call Customer Service.
- Exceptional Circumstances for Expedited Handling—We recognize that exceptional circumstances can require special handling of a case. All requests for expedited handling are reviewed case-by-case and, when circumstances warrant, are granted at the discretion of the Director, USCIS. The criteria are as follows:
 - Severe financial loss to company or individual;
 - Extreme emergent situation;
 - Humanitarian situation;
 - Nonprofit status of requesting organization in furtherance of the cultural and social interests of the United States;
 - Department of Defense National Interest Situation (Note:

Request must come from an official U.S. Government entity and state that delay will be detrimental to our Government.);

- Potential loss of Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits;
- USCIS error;
- Compelling interest of USCIS.

If your case is at a local office at the time you need to make your emergency request, please go to the local office in person to make your request. Please be sure to take all supporting documentation with you.

If your case is at one of our Service Centers or the National Benefits Center, please call Customer Service at 1-800-375-5283 to receive further instructions on where and how to send your request.

- Keep Us Informed About a Change of Address—Please remember that unless you are a U.S. citizen, you must report any change of address. Use Form AR-11, Change of Address, or Form AR-11SR, Change of Address Special Registration. This is separate from updating the address on your application or petition. See our website at www.uscis.gov to update your mailing address or obtain additional information, or call Customer Service for assistance.
