

No Fear Act Report

For Fiscal Year 2004

October 01, 2003 through September 30, 2004

Employment and Training Administration (ETA)

U.S. Department of Labor

I. Basic Information: Title III of the No Fear (Notification and Federal Employee Anti-discrimination and Retaliation) Act requires agencies to post certain statistical information on their public websites concerning complaints of employment discrimination filed with them under 29 C.F.R. Part 1614. The data in this report complies with this Act.

Due to migration of complaint records to a new database, data calculations for fiscal year 1999 and 2000 may be incomplete in certain categories.

II. Contact Information: Civil Rights Center, Room N-4123, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210, telephone number (202) 693-6500, TTY-(202) 693-6515/16, Email:CivilRightsCenter@dol.gov.

III. Definitions of Terms and Acronyms Used in the Report.

Informal Complaint: Complaint of alleged discrimination that is filed no more than 45 calendar days following an alleged discriminatory event or action.

Counseling: The period of the Informal Complaint process, not to exceed 90 calendar days, where an EEO Counselor conducts an initial fact-finding of the alleged discriminatory event or action.

Formal Complaint: Complaint of Alleged Discrimination that is filed no more than 15 calendar days following the completion of the Informal Complaint process.

Investigation: Phase of the Formal Complaint process where an EEO Investigator conducts the formal gathering of information, obtains signed Affidavits, and prepares an investigative report.

Hearing: Phase of the EEO process following the investigation where the complainant has elected to have a hearing of the facts before an EEOC Administrative Judge.

Appeal: Phase of the EEO process where the complainant has elected to contest a decision on their complaint by the filing of an appeal through the EEOC's Office of Federal Operations.

Final Agency Action: Phase of the EEO process where the Civil Rights Center informs the complainant that a decision has been rendered on their complaint. In this document the complainant is also made aware of their appeal rights.

Issue: The issue of a complaint is the matter about which the individual is complaining. The issue sets forth the alleged discriminatory incident for which the individual seeks redress.

Basis: The basis of the complaint is the discriminatory factor asserted by the complainant that is protected by the statute under which the complaint is filed. The bases protected by the non-discrimination statutes are: race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability, age and reprisal.
