

Third Annual

Get to Know NOAA Symposium

*with a Special Dedication Ceremony of a
NOAA 200th Commemorative Survey Marker
Keynote Speaker Dave Zilkowski,
Director of the National Geodetic Survey*

- 12-1pm Local NOAA information booths
- 1pm Special Screening of New "One NOAA" Movie - a history of the US Coast and Geodetic Survey
- 2pm Dedication of Commemorative Marker - Keynote speaker Dave Zilkowski
- 2:30pm Update on the new NOAA Vessel Okeanos Explorer - Craig Russell - Office of Ocean Exploration
- 2:50pm What is Ocean Acidification - Research Update - Richard Feely - Pacific Marine Environmental Lab
- 3:10pm Winter Weather Forecast - Ted Buehner - National Weather Service - Seattle Office
- 3:30pm Last chance to visit NOAA information booths

Refreshments and Raffle drawing at 3:30pm

Building 9

Thursday, November 1st

poster text:

Third Annual Get to Know NOAA Symposium
with a Special Dedication Ceremony of a
NOAA 200th Commemorative Survey Marker
Keynote Speaker Dave Zilkowski,
Director of the National Geodetic Survey

12-1pm Local NOAA information booths

1pm Special Screening of New "One NOAA" Movie - a history of the US Coast and Geodetic Survey

2pm Dedication of Commemorative Marker - Keynote speaker Dave Zilkowski

2:30pm Update on the new NOAA Vessel Okeanos Explorer - Craig Russell - Office of Ocean Exploration

2:50pm What is Ocean Acidification - Research Update - Richard Feely - Pacific Marine Environmental Lab

3:10pm Winter Weather Forecast - Ted Buehner - National Weather Service - Seattle Office

3:30pm Last chance to visit NOAA information booths

Refreshments and Raffle drawing at 3:30pm

Building 9

Thursday, November 1st

Brought to you by the NOAA NW Regional Education and Outreach Group and the NOAA 200th Celebration Committee