

Gentlemen:

I and all the people I know protest your proposal to change the "made in USA" labeling to not mean what it says. We request keeping the same minimum standard now in effect.

Changing to what you have proposed would only favor foreign countries at the American tax payer's expense. We expect more from our leadership and expect you to do what is right.

C.W. Parker