Dear Secretary,

Regarding the proposal to change the meaning of the Made In The USA labeling, I am opposed to this, I feel it could be used to mislead consumers. I look for Made In The USA products because I believe that it affects the economic health of our country, and I wish to do business with manufacturers that keep their production here. You can create a new category if need be, but let Made In The USA mean Made In The USA.

Respectfully,

Sherry Smith
