

National Archives and Records Administration (NARA)

CONGRESSIONAL BRIEFING 2006

Date: Tuesday, March 21, 2006
Time: 9:30 am until 12:30
Location: National Archives & Records Administration
201 Varick Street, 12th Floor
New York, NY

You are invited to join us for a comprehensive program on services NARA provides to members of the public and Congress. We will discuss how records at NARA may assist individuals in a variety of ways, and how NARA can enable you to better serve your constituents. We will also provide information on courtesy storage and records management services available at no charge to members of Congress, and special free programs for educators and students. NARA's holdings include naturalizations, veterans records, and other documentation that contain vital information for proving citizenship and military service, establishing eligibility for Social Security and Medicare benefits, and securing other significant rights.

Agenda:	9:30 – 10:00	Refreshments
	10:00 – 12:00	Briefing and questions
	12:00 – 12:30	Tour of New York facility (optional)

Please RSVP to Diane LeBlanc, Regional Administrator, at 781.663.0130, or by email at diane.leblanc@nara.gov by March 3, 2006.
