

Hurricane Protection Decision Chronology Team

- Established to assemble and document the chronological record of planning, economic, policy, legislative, institutional, and financial decisions that influences the the design scale configuration and condition of he greater New Orleans hurricane protection system.
- Intended to complement the parallel track of IPET
 - To verify and verify facts
 - Subject to on-going, independent review
 - Does not extend conclusions, assessment or recommendations

The Team

- Independent experts in water resources planning
- IWR staff
- Non-Federal flood and storm water protection management agencies
- CECW providing executive oversight

Status

- Review of relevant decision documents
 - CD's to Senate as part of Congressional investigations
 - All IPET scanned material
 - Popular press
- Attended IPET 30% review
- Access to information by Office of History
- Interviews with Corps officials in New Orleans

Constructing

- Timelines
- Annotated chronology
- Matrix of popular press themes
- Storylines

Review

- First external review in late April
- Final report 30 days after IPET final report